

The Editor welcomes contributions on all aspects and periods of the history of architecture. Papers and proposals should be sent to him at Barleybat Hall, Church Lawton, Stoke-on-Trent, Staffs ST7 3DG, England. It is recommended that illustrations should be sent in the first instance as photocopies. Notes on the Society's preferred methods of presentation are available from the Editor on request.

Those sending papers which they wish to be returned are requested to enclose a self-addressed envelope with sufficient stamps to cover return postage or, in the case of overseas contributors, international postage coupons.
