ON POWER: THE NATURAL HISTORY OF ITS GROWTH

By Bertrand de Jouvenel

With a foreword by D. W. Brogan

Translated by J. F. Huntington

Bertrand de Jouvenel provides us with an analytical and historical account of all of the factors that have helped and continue to help expand the power of the state and of the ways in which state power is inevitably abused. Jouvenel has done for the twentieth century what Tocqueville did for the nineteenth.

—Dr. Nicholas Capaldi, University of Tulsa

On Power demonstrates that modern democracy itself, far from diffusing the power of the state, has given it even greater powers.

FAITH AND POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

The Correspondence between Leo Strauss and Eric Voegelin, 1934–1964

Translated and edited, with an introduction,
by Peter C. Emberley and Barry Cooper

In fifty-three recently discovered letters, Strauss and Voegelin explore the nature of their similarities and differences, offering trenchant observations about one another's work, about the state of the discipline, and about the influences working on them. The correspondence fleshes out many assumptions made in their published writings, often with a frankness and directness that remove all vestiges of ambiguity. Included with the correspondence are four pivotal re-published essays—Jersualem and Athens: Some Preliminary Reflections (Strauss), The Gospel and Culture (Voegelin), Immortality: Experience and Symbol (Voegelin), and The Mutual Influence of Theology and Philosophy (Strauss)—and commentaries by James L. Wiser, Hans-Georg Gadamer, Stanley Rosen, Thomas J.J. Altizer, Timothy Fuller, Ellis Sandoz, Thomas L. Pangle, and David Walsh.

THE BALANCE OF CONSCIOUSNESS

Eric Voegelin's Political Theory

Kenneth Keulman

"This interpretation of the political theory of Voegelin, one of the premier contemporary philosophers of consciousness, history, and social order, amounts to a challenging introduction to his entire enterprise. . . . Newcomers to Voegelin may find some stretches hard going, but persistence will reward them richly. Old hands will celebrate a fine piece of work."
