

Contributions and Editorial Correspondence

Send article submissions with cover letters as e-mail attachments to ijmes@gc.cuny.edu. No hard copy is necessary. Books are not solicited for review from authors or publishers. Those wishing to have books reviewed should send a copy to the editorial office. Unsolicited book reviews cannot be accepted for publication. Articles must be based on original research and the careful analysis of archival and other primary source materials. Manuscripts are evaluated with the understanding that they have not been published elsewhere in any language and are not under consideration for publication or part of a book that will be published in the near future. IJMES will consider 400-word commentaries on research in progress for the Quick Studies section.

Manuscript Preparation and Style

General. An article must be in English and should not exceed 10,000 words or thirty-five 8.5- × 11-inch double-spaced pages in 12-point font (including main text, notes, tables, and figure captions) with 1-inch margins on all sides. Authors should submit one electronic copy via e-mail attachment in PC format and using a standard word-processing program. The entire manuscript—including notes, tables, and references—must be typed double-spaced and numbered consecutively. Do not use software to mark diacriticals in the original digital text. Please note that many word-processing programs do not autoformat the footnotes window, and authors are responsible for ensuring that the paper does not arrive with embedded single-spaced endnotes in a tiny font size. Authors must avoid putting their names in headers or footers and avoid any references to themselves in the body or the endnotes such as might betray their identity to referees. However, all submissions must include a cover sheet or letter that includes the author's name, institutional affiliation, land-mail address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address. The Journal conforms to the Chicago Manual of Style, 14th Edition. Transliteration follows a modified Encyclopedia of Islam system, which is detailed on this page. The title alone should be centered at the top of the first text page. In the final draft, institutional affiliation and location should appear at the bottom of the first text page. The editor may find it necessary to return manuscripts for reworking or retyping that do not conform to these requirements.

Text. Use a five-character paragraph indent. Avoid hyphenating words at the end of lines. Do not use desktop publishing features. Block indent long quotations (more than 50 words). Never cross-reference.

Notes and References. Notes must be numbered consecutively throughout the text, typed double-spaced in paragraph style, and grouped together as a unit following the text. Footnotes at the bottom of the text page are not permitted. Any acknowledgment of grant support, substantial assistance, and so forth should be typed as an Author's Note above the first note in the final draft. Provide the full name of the author as it appears in the publication. All titles in non-Roman alphabets (Arabic, Cyrillic, etc.) must be transliterated. Foreign titles in Roman alphabets should be capitalized as they would be in that particular language. An English translation of nonstandard language titles should be provided in parentheses after the title. The style of note citations should conform with the following examples:

When references to the same work follow without interruption, use ibid. When notes to the same work follow after interruption, use the author's last name and a shortened title of the book or article. Do not use op. cit.:

IJMES does not publish bibliographies.

Foreign Words and Transliteration. Diacritical marks (macrons and dots) are used in IJMES only on italicized technical terms (e.g., qaşida). Macrons and dots should not be added to personal names, place names, names of political parties, or titles of books. These latter words should generally be spelled in accordance with the IJMES transliteration system (described below) but without diacriticals. 'Ayn and hamza should be shown in all these cases, and should be clearly distinguished from one another and from apostrophes. Place names with accepted English spellings and personal names of prominent political leaders or cultural figures should be spelled in accordance with English norms. No words that appear in an unabridged English dictionary shall be treated as technical terms requiring transliteration (thus excluding terms such as shaykh, qadi, Sunni, minbar, madrasa, suq, hadith, etc.). Please see the word list on the IJMES editorial office website—<http://www.gc.cuny.edu/ijmes>—for exceptions such as Qur'an, shari'a, and 'ulama'.

Transliteration System. All technical terms from languages using non-Roman alphabets must be fully transliterated with diacritics. In addition, personal names, place names, names of political parties and organizations, and titles of books should be transliterated but the macrons and dots omitted. Authors are responsible for the consistency and accuracy of their transliteration. For Arabic and Persian, IJMES uses the modified Encyclopedia of Islam system: qaf = q not k; jim = j not dj; roman double-letter equivalents are not underlined; the l of al- is not assimilated to the following consonant; ta marbuta is rendered a not ah, except in Persian, where it should be rendered ih; the adjectival -ya followed by ta marbuta is rendered -iyya (iyyih in Persian); nisba is rendered -iyya. For Ottoman Turkish, transliterate or use modern Turkish orthography consistently. Persian must be transliterated with the IJMES system, not that of the Encyclopedia Iranica, so i and u must be used, not e and o. The Persian izafat is rendered as -i.

Dates. IJMES does not use double dating. Use common era (A.D.) dates only, unless quoting from an original source, in which case use the date as quoted (hijra, solar, etc.) with the common era equivalent in parentheses.

Tables and Figures. Tables and figures must be cited in the text, for example, (see Table 1). They should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numbers, captioned, and appear as a unit following the notes section. They should not be interspersed in the text. Diagrams must be professionally rendered or computer generated; details should be large enough to remain legible at 50% reduction. Below standard artwork will be returned to the author for replacement. All artwork must be numbered and labeled with the author's name and article title. For halftones or other illustrations, consult the editor.

Photos. When appropriate, photos may be submitted with a manuscript to the editorial office. Their use will be at the editor's discretion. Images should be submitted in electronic format.

Publishing Information

Production. The publisher reserves the right to copyedit manuscripts to conform to the journal's style, which generally follows the rules found in the Chicago Manual of Style. Spelling will be edited to conform to American usage. More substantial editing will be returned to the author for approval before publication.

The lead author will receive one set of proofs for the correction of typographical or factual errors only. No rewriting will be allowed in the proof stage. Authors must return the material to the editorial office within 48 hours of receipt or approval will be assumed.

Offprints. The lead author of an article (but not book review) will receive a high quality PDF of the article. Offprints may be purchased if ordered at the proof stage. Orders received after the issue is printed are subject to a 50% reprint surcharge.

Copyright and Originality. Submission of an article implies that it has not been simultaneously submitted or previously published elsewhere. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to publish any material under copyright. Contributors will be asked to assign their own copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press.

Instructions for Book Review Preparation

- A. The entire manuscript should be double-spaced and with a 1-inch margin on all sides. The font should be 12 point.
  1. Publication Data
Example: John Doe, The Title of the Book Italic, Series Title (Place of publication: Publisher, date of publication). Pp. 364. $39.95 cloth, $16.95 paper.
Please note the price of the book in the publication data. If the price is not clear, it is acceptable to use the price given at the publisher's website.
  2. Reviewer's Data
Reviewed by Jane Doe, Department of History, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; e-mail: (if available)
  3. Text
The text starts flush left and is double-spaced. All other paragraphs are indented. At the end of the review, please type the name of the reviewer and the address to which offprints will be sent. If this address is not included, offprints may be sent to an incorrect address or may not be sent at all. For example,

Professor Jane Doe
Department of History
University of Michigan
1515 Main Street
Ann Arbor, MI 48109
e-mail address (if available)
- B. Submissions are to be sent to the book review editor who commissioned the work. Although files can be sent via e-mail or diskette, it is preferred that they be transmitted by e-mail attachment to retain the format. Diskettes should be formatted for the PC. Rich text file format is preferred.
- C. Miscellaneous
  1. Reviews should not require notes. If any are absolutely necessary, please see the JMES cover for instructions.
  2. The publishers reserve the right to copyedit and proof all articles accepted for publication.

Editors

Duncan Snidal, University of Chicago
Alexander Wendt, The Ohio State University

Launching in 2009, International Theory invites papers on theory of all varieties and from all disciplines, provided it addresses problems of politics, broadly defined and relates to the international.

International Theory welcomes scholarship that uses evidence from the real world to advance theoretical arguments. However, it is intended as a forum where scholars can develop theoretical arguments in depth without an expectation of extensive empirical analysis.

Full instructions for contributors can be found here: journals.cambridge.org/int/ifc

Manuscripts for consideration or any queries should be sent by email to the Editors at it.mershon@osu.edu

International Theory is published with the support of the Mershon Center of The Ohio State University

Stephen A. Jarislowsky Chair in the Modern History of the Middle East and North Africa
Department of History, Faculty of Arts,
University of Manitoba
Position Number 08799

The University of Manitoba invites applications or nominations for the Stephen A. Jarislowsky Chair in the Modern History of the Middle East and North Africa. The position represents an exciting opportunity for an academic of outstanding potential who is becoming internationally recognized as a scholar in the field. The rank of the appointment for the Chair is advanced assistant professor or above. The Chairholder will have a strong research program and a substantial publication and research record relative to stage in career, teaching experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and international standing that enables scholarly connections and collaborative work between the Chairholder, the University of Manitoba and other researchers on the Middle East and North Africa. The appointment will be effective July 1, 2010 or soon thereafter.

The mission of the Stephen A. Jarislowsky Chair in the History of the Modern Middle East and North Africa will be to build knowledge and enhance understanding of the peoples, cultures, and societies in this vitally important region of the world.

The successful applicant will be a specialist in any area of the history of the modern Middle East or North Africa. The Chairholder will be expected to carry out a strong and highly visible research agenda, to contribute to our undergraduate and graduate teaching program, and to initiate and participate in relevant outreach activities. A completed PhD, publications, and a demonstrated record of successful teaching are required. Experience in mentoring graduate students is a strong asset. We have a special interest in candidates who have demonstrated an ability to promote discussion and debate, and to build research collaborations across traditional disciplinary boundaries.

With over 26,000 students, The University of Manitoba is the province's premier post-secondary educational institution and its only research-intensive university. The Department of History is one of its most outstanding academic units, with award-winning students, teachers, and researchers who form an active and collegial community. Capital of the province of Manitoba, Winnipeg is a vibrant multicultural city with a greater metropolitan population of over 700,000. The city supports outstanding arts and entertainment and a variety of professional sports, and has access to nearby lakes and beaches and spectacular wilderness recreation.

Further information is available concerning:

- The Department of History <http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/departments/history/>
- The Faculty of Arts <http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/arts/>
- The University of Manitoba <http://umanitoba.ca/>
- The City of Winnipeg <http://www.winnipeg.ca/interhom/>
- The Province of Manitoba <http://www.gov.mb.ca/>

The University of Manitoba encourages applications from qualified women and men, including members of visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, people of all sexual orientations and genders, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the University. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

First consideration of applications will commence on October 1, 2009. If necessary, the review of applications will continue until the position is filled.

Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae with a brief (2-page) five-year research plan and a statement of teaching philosophy (1-page). Please arrange to have three letters of reference sent to:

Dr. Richard Sigurdson, Dean, Faculty of Arts
c/o Ms Sandra Ferguson, Department of History

A History from Antiquity to the Present

By Phillip C. Naylor

"Naylor's approach is innovative, his research thorough and balanced, and, most importantly, he exhibits an exceptional empathy for the peoples and cultures of the region whose history remains little understood in the United States. This is a work of exceptional insight that deserves the widest circulation possible."
