Membership and Subscription

The Society's Byelaws set out the membership requirements as follows:

1. Anyone wishing to become a Fellow must be nominated by a Fellow of the Society and a seconder, each acting on personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Fellow. The nominating Fellow and the seconder shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate's name, status, occupation and address.
2. A candidate for Fellowship may, instead of being nominated by a Fellow of the Society, address an application in writing to the Secretary giving the required information above and supported by a letter of recommendation from his head of department or supervisor or other responsible person who need not be a Fellow of the Society.
3. It shall be within the power of the Council, on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate in exceptional circumstances, to dispense with these conditions.
4. The annual subscription is:

	£	p
Fellows residing in the British Isles	70.00
If paying by direct debit	60.00
Fellows residing abroad	45.00
If paying by direct debit	40.00

The International Journal of Asian Studies (IJAS) is an interdisciplinary, English-language forum for research in the social sciences and humanities. IJAS examines Asia on a regional basis, emphasising patterns and tendencies that go beyond the borders of individual countries. While the journal covers all regions of Asia, the primary focus is on eastern Asia, that is, Korea, China, Taiwan, Vietnam and Japan. As well as encouraging contributions from western scholars, IJAS focuses attention on the work of Asian scholars, in order to encourage multi-directional communication across the international Asian studies community. IJAS includes both themed and general issues.

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy

A Historical Journal

Executive Editor

Roshdi Rashed, CNRS, Paris, France & University of Tokyo, Japan

Managing Editor

Ahmed Hasnaoui, CNRS, Paris, France

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy (ASP) is an international journal devoted to the Arabic sciences, mathematics and philosophy in the world of Islam between the eighth and eighteenth centuries, in a cross-cultural context. In 2009, the journal extended its scope to include important papers on scientific modernization from the nineteenth century in the Islamic world. Together with original studies on the history of all these fields, ASP also offers work on the inter-relations between Arabic and Greek, Indian, Chinese, Latin, Byzantine, Syriac and Hebrew sciences and philosophy. Casting new light on the growth of these disciplines, as well as on the social and ideological context in which this growth took place, ASP is essential reading for those interested in these areas.

Modern Asian Studies

Editor

Joya Chatterji, University of Cambridge, UK

Book Review Editor

Norbert Peabody, University of Cambridge, UK

Modern Asian Studies promotes original, innovative and rigorous research on the history, sociology, economics and culture of modern Asia. Covering South Asia, South-East Asia, China, Japan and Korea, the journal is published in six parts each year. It welcomes articles which deploy inter-disciplinary and comparative research methods. Modern Asian Studies specialises in the publication of longer monographic essays based on path-breaking new research; it also carries substantial synoptic essays which illuminate the state of the broad field in fresh ways. It contains a book review section which offers detailed analysis of important new publications in the field.

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society invites the submission of original scholarly articles on the anthropology, archaeology, architecture, art, history, languages, literatures, philosophies and religions of all parts of Asia. The Journal also welcomes proposals for special issues from guest editors which may, or may not, be based on conference proceedings. The Journal will also consider rigorously argued pieces of research of extended length. Authors are informed that the Journal is now published online through First View in advance of print publication.

Submissions

All editorial communications should be addressed to:

The Editorial Office
cdb@royalasiaticsociety.org, or
Royal Asiatic Society
14 Stephenson Way
London NW1 2HD
UK

Submissions should be made electronically, formatted in 'word.doc' form and accompanied by a 'pdf'. Delivery should be by email attachment to the editorial office at cdb@royalasiaticsociety.org. If non-Roman scripts or characters are used, these should be rendered in Unicode. We strongly discourage submission of articles formatted in 'TeX' or in hardcopy. Occasionally authors may wish to send CDs or USB-sticks to the editorial office by post. Postal correspondence should be addressed to:- The Editorial Office, Royal Asiatic Society, 14 Stephenson Way, London NW1 2HD.

Submission of an article, or other item, implies that it has not been published or accepted for publication elsewhere. Authors are responsible for obtaining written permission to publish, in both print and electronic media, material for which they do not own the copyright and for ensuring that appropriate acknowledgements are included in their draft text or typescript. Authors of material accepted for publication will be asked to assign their copyright to the Royal Asiatic Society.

Authors will receive electronic proofs directly from CUP but in cases where an author does not have online access the Journal's editorial office will dispatch hardcopy proofs. All corrections should be returned to the Journal's Editorial Office.

References and notes should be typed in the form of the following examples:
