

KWIC INDEX TO
*LAW & SOCIETY REVIEW

VOLUMES 1-14

PREPARED BY HERBERT JACOB AND SUSAN BARTH

The following is a computer-generated index of all full-length articles that appeared in the Review in volumes 1-14. The index is in two parts. Part I is an author index. For every first author of an article in the Review there is an entry which indicates: 1) the authors; 2) the title; 3) the volume, year, and page of the article.

Part II of the index is a Key Word in Context (KWIC) index of the titles of all articles in the Review. If, for instance, one is interested in finding all articles which had "deterrence" in their title, one would search for "deterrence" in the index. One article, "Deterrence: Some Theoretical Considerations" is listed. On the right-hand margin, the author (Michael Geerken) is shown. To obtain the full citation for this article, one then looks up Geerken in the author index. In addition, one may note two other articles with the word "deterrent" in their titles that might be of interest.

We hope readers of the Review will find this index helpful. We also ask their indulgence for typographical errors which escaped our best efforts at detection.

* We are indebted to Herbert M. Kritzer, Rebecca J. Prieve, Pamela Solberg, and Edith Wilimovsky for assistance in preparing this index.
