

Jacques Maritain

is the foremost Christian philosopher of our times. As Edwin Muir said in the Sunday Times, 'he has a profound humanity founded on a living experience of religion' and his books are read not merely by scholars, but by everyone seriously concerned with the problems of living a Christian life fully.

ON THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY

'The most thought-provoking survey of Europe's past I have read for a very long time'—GLANMOR WILLIAMS, Western Mail. 'Of high importance. To be studied by all serious students'—Catholic Herald

FAMILY DOCTOR AND FAMILY PROBLEMS

— Doctor K. F. M. Pole

Family Doctor and Family Problems is written from the point of view of the 'Family Doctor' who knows intimately every member of the family in his charge and the individual problems of each. It is dedicated to 'all who, in the union of love, strive to make this world a better place to live in'. Though based primarily on Catholic teaching this book tackles the difficulties which everyone practising Christianity, or only believing in Christian culture, has to face in the modern world with regard to sex, marriage and education.

The book contains first-class advice on a series of subjects which range from birth to old age, from courtship to parenthood. Thus it should be of concern not only to all parents and newly married couples, but also to young people leaving school to face life and its problems. Moreover it should be of importance to clergy and to doctors of any denomination who have to guide people who believe in these principles and in whom neglect of them might cause perplexities of conscience with disastrous consequences.
