

Rules for the World

International Organizations in Global Politics

Michael Barnett and Martha Finnemore

"Barnett and Finnemore conclude that the impact of international organizations lies less in the expert knowledge they wield than in the ways they define problems, set agendas, and deploy 'intellectual technologies.'"

—Foreign Affairs
$45.00 cloth, $17.95 paper

Partisan Interventions

European Party Politics

and Peace Enforcement in the Balkans

Brian C. Rathbun

"Rathbun offers great insights into the history of European engagement in the Balkans in the 1990s and explains how and why political parties take the positions they do."

—Anthony Lake, Georgetown University
$39.95 cloth

Economic Nationalism in a Globalizing World

edited by Eric Helleiner and Andreas Pickel

"The authors in this rich volume demonstrate that economic nationalism and globalization not only can but do coexist. They link national identity and culture to countries' economic policies and thus make a contribution to our understanding of international political economy and to the broader study of nationalism."

—Ronald H. Linden, University of Pittsburgh
