

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

All editorial communications should be addressed to the Secretary, Royal Asiatic Society, 56 Queen Anne Street, London W1M 9LA, in the first instance.

Contributions submitted for publication in the Society's Journal should be typed in double spacing on quarto paper, leaving a margin of at least 16 strokes at the left-hand side. Sheets should be numbered consecutively at the top right-hand corner. Notes, numbered consecutively through the article, should be typed on a separate sheet or sheets at the end and not at the foot of each sheet.

Authors are urged to study the conventions employed in recent issues of the Journal, particularly the style of citation of books and periodical articles, and the bibliographical information inserted at the head of reviews. Contributions should be submitted in a form ready for the printer; later corrections which would involve over-running can be accepted only at the Editor's discretion. Galleys will be sent to authors, but not page proofs.

Authors of articles will be supplied with 25 free copies of offprints. Additional copies can be obtained on request at moderate charges; authors are asked to notify the Editor of their requirements when returning proofs.

The Crisis of Indian Unity 1917-1940

R. J. Moore

Professor Moore here presents a fully analytical account of the long negotiations that ended in failure. He shows how Gandhi, Congress, and the British were caught in a series of dilemmas arising out of incompatible conceptions of politics, so that progress towards self-government was constantly hampered. £2.75

---

The Chronology of Oral Tradition

---

Quest for a Chimera

D. P. Henige

Chronology is probably the weakest aspect of oral historical materials. Taking a comparative approach, the author discusses the various processes by which oral chronology can be distorted and explains the circumstances which promote and facilitate such distortions, arguing that the data are not susceptible to quantification. £4.75

A Study of Indian Culture and Society

Richard Lannoy

An exploration of India's cultural development and its contemporary social achievements and dilemmas. Mr. Lannoy explains and illuminates Indian family life, caste, ethics, and the confrontation between sacred power and modern secular politics. Illustrated paper covers £2.30 Galaxy Books OUP New York

Japanese Economic Growth

Trend Acceleration in the Twentieth Century

Kazushi Ohkawa and Henry Rosovsky

This study emphasizes the dramatic growth of the Japanese economy since World War II. The authors attempt to fit Japan's experience into a historic growth model of the type familiar to economists. After a brief historical introduction they establish the basic pattern of Japan's twentieth-century growth and consider individual aspects of it in detail. They conclude with a look at Japan's economic future. £5.75 Stanford

Crisis and Conflict in Han China

104 BC to AD 9
MICHAEL LOEWE

In this book two attitudes towards government during the first century BC are illustrated, the one progressive, realist and forward looking, the other conservative, idealist and harking back to the past.

The author studies nine occasions when these two attitudes came into conflict. This was a time when many of the permanent features of China's intellectual framework and imperial institutions were being formulated, and the results of these conflicts extended far beyond the particular scandals or controversies of the day.

Dictionary of Oriental Literatures

Edited by JAROSLAV PRUSEK
Volume I: East Asia
Volume II: South and South-East Asia
Volume III: West Asia and North Africa

The result of international collaboration by over 150 orientalists the Dictionary of Oriental Literatures presents a concise summary in about 2000 articles of practically all the literatures of Asia and North Africa. The majority of the entries provide information about the works of individual writers and poets of the classical, medieval and modern periods, giving aesthetic and historical evaluations of their writings. Literary terms, genres and movements are also explained.

'an inestimably valuable contribution to the reference shelves of all those working in the fields of Asian Studies . . . deserves the warmest welcome indeed.' Dr Joseph Needham, Master of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge

JOURNAL OF ORIENTAL STUDIES

東方文化

UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

The Journal of Oriental Studies was established in 1954 as a bilingual periodical issued by the former Institute of Oriental Studies of the University of Hong Kong. In 1969 it was continued by the new Centre of Asian Studies of the University of Hong Kong, and it now appears twice a year, in January and July, and includes articles in English and in Chinese on the arts and social sciences in East and Southeast Asia, and reviews of new scholarly publications on China and Southeast Asia.

The Journal is an indispensable adjunct to Asian studies and is taken by university libraries where there is academic work and interest in the Far East.

An annual subscription costs HK $60 (US $12, UK £4.50) and the price of single issues is HK $30 (approximately US $6 at current rates of exchange). As a special offer while stocks last, complete sets of the Journal Vols I–X inclusive are being offered to libraries and to individuals for HK $300 (US $60, UK £22.50) subject to taking an advance subscription. A recent sample copy is available on request.

For subscription enquiries, please write to the publisher, Hong Kong University Press, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong. For editorial enquiries, please write to the Editor, Journal of Oriental Studies, Centre of Asian Studies, University of Hong Kong.

The Iban of Sarawak

Erik Jensen

---

Many peoples of Indonesia believe in spirits, the spirits of the dead, the spirits that inhabit living things, inanimate objects, and natural phenomena, not least the spirit of rice. For the Iban of Sarawak the ritual acts, concepts, and myths associated with the rice cult are at the centre of religious life. This first systematic study of Iban religion shows its importance for an understanding of their social organization and behaviour, their code of values, and of their whole agricultural system. # Protest Movements in Rural Java

---

A Study of Agrarian Unrest in the Nineteenth and early Twentieth Centuries

---

Sartono Kartodirdjo

---

The author examines the rural history of Java during the period of Dutch rule. The author shows that the peasant protest movements of the time were uncoordinated, each breaking out in response to some local initiative. Yet despite this they were remarkably similar in ideology, organization and development, and it is possible to treat them as manifestations of a social process that brought about social and political change. £7.50 OUP East Asia
