

Ethnopolitics

EDITORS:

Stefan Wolff, University of Nottingham, UK
Karl Cordell, University of Plymouth, UK

Ethnopolitics is an authoritative peer-reviewed journal which provides a forum for serious debate and exchange on one of the phenomena that had a decisive impact during the last decades of the 20th century and continues to be of great importance in the new millennium. The journal gives a voice to established as well as younger researchers and analysts from academic as well as practitioner backgrounds. We publish original work of the highest quality in the field of ethnopolitics with methodological approaches covering mainly the disciplines of political science and international relations and taking primarily a contemporary, current affairs perspective. Ethnopolitics is a journal of the Specialist Group on Ethnopolitics and the Association for the Study of Nationalities.

NATIONALITIES PAPERS is the only journal in the world which deals exclusively with all nationalities of the former USSR, and also with national minorities in Eastern and Central European countries. The problems and importance of over 140 million people are treated with the disciplinary and methodological contexts of Post-Soviet and Europe-Asia studies. Nationalities Papers is an international and multidisciplinary journal with contributors and readers throughout North America, Western and Eastern Europe, the Far East, Japan and the People's Republic of China. Included in each general issue are in-depth analyses from the historical view, updates on latest developments, some original documents, and book reviews; some issues concentrate on a region or nationality as a special topic, which exclusive focus allows for more extensive and detailed information.

Submission of manuscripts. Authors should submit both initial and final versions of their articles in both hard copy paper and electronic forms. It is essential that the hard copy (paper) version exactly matches the material on disk. Please print out the hard copy from the disk you are sending. Send as a Word or WordPerfect attachment to sosabol@uncg.edu or submit two printed copies of the final version with the disk to Steven Sabol, Nationalities Papers, Department of History, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Charlotte, NC 28223, USA. Save all files on a standard 3.5 inch high-density disk. We prefer to receive disks in Microsoft Word for Windows or WordPerfect, but can translate from most other common word-processing programs. Please specify which program you have used. Do not save your files as "text only" or "read only". For further details on Electronic Submission, please visit the Taylor & Francis Website at: <http://www.tandf.co.uk/journals>

Note to authors. Please make sure your contact address information is clearly visible on the outside of all packages you are sending to Editors.

Offprints. Corresponding authors can receive 50 free reprints, free online access to their article through our website (www.informaworld.com) and a complimentary copy of the issue containing their article. Complimentary reprints are available through Rightslink® and additional reprints can be ordered through Rightslink® when proofs are received or alternatively on our journals website. If you have any queries, please contact our reprints department at reprints@tandf.co.uk

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors assign copyright or license the publication rights in their articles, including abstracts, to The Association for the Study of Nationalities. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and of course the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors retain many rights under the Taylor & Francis rights policies, which can be found at www.informaworld.com/authors_journals_copyright_position. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.
