The American Journal of International Law

The views expressed in the articles, editorial comments, book reviews and notes, and other contributions which appear in AJIL are those of the individual authors and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Board of Editors or the American Society of International Law.

Manuscripts in triplicate may be sent to the Editor in Chief of AJIL, Professor Thomas M. Franck, New York University School of Law, 40 Washington Square South, New York, N.Y. 10012. All footnotes should be typed double space at the end of the manuscript. Please do not make multiple submissions to other journals. Persons making submissions are invited to indicate whether their manuscript is available on an IBM-PC diskette. AJIL uses WordPerfect 4.2. Subscriptions, orders for back numbers, correspondence with reference to AJIL and books for review should be sent to the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW (ISSN 0002-9300), 2223 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20008-2864.

The American Society of International Law

The American Society of International Law was organized in 1906 "to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice."

Society membership is open to all persons of whatever nationality and profession who are interested in its objectives. Dues are: regular, $70; special category, $30 for persons not resident in a member country of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development; intermediate, $30; student, $20. Membership application form is printed at the back of each issue of AJIL.
