Region and Nation

The Kwangsi Clique in Chinese Politics 1925-37
DIANA LARY

A study of the tensions between regional and national government in China in the republican period after the collapse of the old order. Dr Lary reconstructs imaginatively and thoroughly the intricate political and military history of the period, but without losing sight of the overall regional character of the Kwangsi government and policy.

China's Policy in Africa 1958-1971

ALABA OGUNSANWO

A meticulously-researched and incisive examination of a subject which has often been submerged in propaganda. Dr Ogunsanwo traces in great detail the phases and development of Chinese policy in Africa; diplomatic, military, economic, social and cultural relations over the whole of the continent from 1958 to 1971 are examined.

Articles on China prior to 1949 are also welcome, particularly, but not exclusively, when these relate directly to contemporary China or to the history of the Chinese Communist Party. Articles should be submitted, together with a duplicate copy, to the editorial office. They should be typed in double spacing and, preferably, conform to the styling of The China Quarterly.

The China Quarterly is published by the Contemporary China Institute of the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University. The views expressed in articles are those of individual authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the Contemporary China Institute.
