

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31-34 Gordon Square, London, W.C. 1

President : Professor N. G. L. Hammond, D.S.O.

THE Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

1. A Library of some 36,000 volumes, containing many costly works and rare periodicals.
2. Some 15,000 lantern slides covering the whole domain of ancient life and art. Besides the general collection, there are sets of slides with lecture texts.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive free the Society's two annual publications : The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations, and book reviews ; Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public at £4 and 7s. 6d. respectively.

The Annual Subscription to the Society is £3. The Composition Fee for life-membership is £15 for those over 60 years of age. The subscription for Libraries and Student Associates is £4 12s. 6d. and £1 respectively. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or inquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary at the above address.

The Classical Association

THE main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organizes an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors thirty-one branches, most of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is approximately 4,250. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions at an annual subscription of 5s. (life composition for individual members, £5 5s.). Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review, £2 5s. ; Quarterly, £2 ; combined subscription, £3 17s. 6d.). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of 25s. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by 31st January in each year) should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Professor L. A. Moritz, University College, Cardiff.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price 25s. for members, 30s. for non-members, post free) and of the last two issues of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1939-45 and 1945-47 (price 6s. each volume, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association are obtainable from the Hon. Treasurer or from Mr. R. G. Tetstall, University College, Cardiff. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Hon. Secretaries (Professor B. R. Rees, University College, Cardiff, and Mr. T. W. Melliush, 32 Poplar Walk, Herne Hill, London, S.E. 24).
