Upcoming APSA Grant Opportunities

LET APSA FUND
YOUR RESEARCH!

The American Political Science Association (APSA) awards grants, fellowships, and scholarships with the aim of advancing education and research in political science. These include grants to support scholarly research, grants to support civic engagement programming, collaborative projects on teaching political science, and research projects aimed at having real-world impact on pressing issues, and more.

Summer Centennial Center Research Grants

Summer Centennial Center Research Grants are open to all APSA members. Grants are supported by a set of endowed funds, some of which target specific research topics. The summer application deadline also offers a limited number of grants for mini-conferences, workshops, and other collaborative projects.

- Maximum grant amount for research: $2,500
- Maximum grant amount for conferences, workshops, etc.: $10,000

Application requires: CV, abstract, short proposal, budget, letters of reference for graduate student applicants and proposals over $5,000.

Application deadline: June 15, 2021 | www.apsanet.org/centennial

2021 Fund for Latino Scholarship

The Fund's primary goal is to encourage and support the recruitment, retention, and promotion of Latina/o/x political scientists (especially students and tenure track junior faculty); our secondary goal is to support research on Latino politics in the United States (especially students and tenure track junior faculty). Grants will be made to individuals, institutions, and projects whose purposes most clearly match the goals of the Fund, and whose proposals most persuasively demonstrate capacity for successful completion.

Application deadline: June 15, 2021

Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grant

The Doctoral Dissertation Research Improvement Grant (DDRIG) provides support to enhance and improve the conduct of doctoral dissertation research in political science. DDRIG awards up to 20 grants, yearly, between $10,000 and $15,000 to support doctoral dissertation research that advances knowledge and understanding of citizenship, government, and politics.

Philosophy of Perspectives on Politics

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

A full-length copy of the journal's editorial philosophy appears in Perspectives on Politics 8(1): 7–10 and also on the web at <https://www.apsanet.org/perspectivesubmissions>.

Submission and Review

For submission guidelines, please see <https://www.apsanet.org/perspectivesubmissions>.

Our editorial team discusses all submissions. Those that seem promising are evaluated by several external reviewers—with full confidentiality on both sides—and then accepted, returned for further revisions, or declined with suggestions of more appropriate venues for publication.

ABOUT THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION (APSA)

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association (APSA) is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 11,000 members in over 100 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to deepen our understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship throughout the world. The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing four distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, PS: Political Science & Politics, and the Journal of Political Science Education.
