SOME RECENT BOOKS

GOD, MAN AND SATAN

By BERNARD J. KELLY, C.S.Sp.

Cr. 8vo. 4s. 6d.

The subject of the personality of Satan, the enemy of mankind, is one about which only a limited amount has been written from the theological point of view. Dr Kelly, C.S.Sp., here sets out to explain what is Satan's true nature, viewing the matter from the standpoint of a theologian, while at the same time having in view the ordinary educated layman. A book of unusual interest.

THE SCHOOLMASTER, PARENT AND PUPIL

By DOM MATTHEW DILLON, O.S.B.

Cr. 8vo. 3s. 6d.

Dom Matthew Dillon was for many years headmaster of the Benedictine School at Glenstal. He here produces for his readers the fruits of mature wisdom, wide experience, and human and balanced outlook on life. This book will not only be of interest to those engaged in the teaching profession, but to all parents and to many pupils as well.

DIVINE PLAN FOR WORK AND WEALTH

By J. MCAULAY, S.M.

Cr. 8vo. 4s. 0d.

Fr McAulay here gives a popular and accurate summary of the great Encyclical, Quadragesimo Anno, which will do much to help Catholics in the world to understand what it wishes to teach. This book will be found valuable for the use of students, study circles, and those engaged in teaching Catholic social principles; nothing of quite the same kind has appeared in English before.

THE ARMOUR OF CHRIST

By BERNARD J. KELLY, C.S.Sp.

Cr. 8vo. 8s. 6d.

'Many pages quote with real devotion, coupled with sound Christian doctrine concerning God, Christ, the Holy Spirit and the Church. . . . The book will lead many to a more dedicated life to God and to man.'—Theology.

BURNT OUT INCENSE

By M. RAYMOND, O.C.S.O.

Demy 8vo. 12s. 6d.

This gives the history for the last hundred years of the Abbey of Gethsemani, to which Fr Raymond belongs. It tells of the first pioneers who made their way through the wilds of America in 1848 and from then on gives a wonderful picture of the history of a great pioneer Abbey.

BISHOP SHANAHAN OF SOUTHERN NIGERIA

By J. J. JORDAN, C.S.Sp.

Demy 8vo. 16s. 0d.

'There is nothing dull in this book, and it will be of interest to readers both for the light it sheds on the missionary work of the Roman Church, and for the loveliness and spirituality of Bishop Shanahan himself.'—Church Times.
'A fascinating book.'—Catholic Herald.

MORE ABOUT DOM MARMION

Translated from the French by the Earl of Wicklow.

Cr. 8vo. 7s. 6d.

'The present work is sure to become popular with priests and with all who are concerned with things of the spirit. . . . The book consists of five studies of various aspects of Dom Marmion's doctrine and a chapter on Our Lady from a book by the celebrated Benedictine, not yet published. . . . A striking bit of work.'
—Irish Independent.

THE AKATHISTOS HYMN

An ode in praise of our Lady, written on the occasion of the deliverance of Constantinople from the Barbarians in A.D.626, and translated by Vincent McNabb, O.P., who says in his preface, 'No apology is needed for introducing the Akathistos Hymn to the Christian West. Indeed the West might be apologetic about its neglect or ignorance of such a literary masterpiece'. This edition is presented with historical notes. The Hymn is printed in two colours and the general production makes it a most suitable presentation copy.

3s. 6d.

A ROSARY CHAIN

by S. M. Dominic, O.P.

A de-luxe volume on hand-made paper, which will stimulate love for our Lady's Rosary and aid all those who use this means of prayer. Sister Dominic's verses have a sweet simplicity which cannot fail to encourage meditation and refresh devotion. Equally suitable for those who have prayed the Rosary since childhood or for beginners who come to it for the first time as adults.

With one plate.
