THE BRITISH ACADEMY

CROMER GREEK PRIZE

WITH the view of maintaining and encouraging the study of Greek, particularly among the young, in the national interest, the late Lord Cromer founded a Prize, to be administered by the British Academy, for the best Essay on any subject connected with the language, history, art, literature, or philosophy of Ancient Greece.

The Prize, which is ordinarily a sum of £40, is awarded annually in March, under the following Rules:—

1. Competition is open to all British subjects of either sex who will be under twenty-six years of age on 31 December preceding the award.

2. Any such persons desirous of competing must send in to the Secretary of the British Academy on or before 1 June of the year preceding the award the title of the subject proposed by him or her. The Academy may approve (with or without modification) or disapprove the subject; their decision will be intimated to the competitor as soon as possible.

3. Preference will be given, in approval of subjects proposed, to those which deal with aspects of the Greek genius and civilization of large and permanent significance over those which are of a minute or highly technical character.

4. Any Essay already published, or which has already received or is in competition for another prize of the same nature, will be inadmissible. A candidate to whom the Prize has been awarded will not be eligible to compete for it again. But an Essay which has not received the Prize may be submitted again (with or without alteration) in a future year so long as the writer remains eligible under Rule 1.

5. Essays of which the subject has been approved must be sent in to the Secretary of the Academy on or before 31 December. They must be typed (or, if the author prefers, printed), and should have a note attached stating the main sources of information used.

6. It is recommended that the Essays should not exceed 20,000 words, exclusive of notes. Notes should not run to an excessive length.

Communications should be addressed to 'The Secretary of the British Academy, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London, W.'

The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies.

50, BEDFORD SQUARE, LONDON, W.C. 1

President: DR. H. IDRIS BELL, F.B.A.

THE subjects to promote the study of which the Society was formed are the history, archæology and art of Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire in general down to about 700 A.D. In particular, so far as its resources permit, and so far as is possible without prejudice to the wider objects with which it is concerned, the Society endeavours to encourage the study of Britain under Roman occupation by devoting space in its Journal to articles on Romano-British history and archæology.

In connexion with the Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies the Society maintains a joint library of works on classical antiquity, and a collection of lantern-slides and photographs. Members are entitled to borrow books and slides, and these can be sent to them by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at 50 Bedford Square.

Afternoon meetings for the reading and discussion of papers are held usually at Burlington House, Piccadilly, W.1, and one evening meeting is arranged for the discussion of a subject useful to teachers of Roman history. Further, the autumn meeting is held out of London and is combined with a visit to a Romano-British site. Notices of all meetings are sent to members.

The Journal of Roman Studies, which is open to the contributions of both British and foreign scholars, is published by the Society in half-yearly parts, and is sent post free to all members.

The Annual Subscription for membership of the Society is one guinea. The composition fee for life membership is ten guineas for persons over fifty years of age, and fifteen guineas for others. Student Associates are admitted at the reduced subscription of 10s. 6d.

Persons desirous of joining the Society are asked to communicate with the Secretary at the Haverfield Library, Ashmolean Museum, Oxford.

THE ORESTEIA OF AESCHYLUS

Edited, with an Introduction, a Translation, and a Commentary in which is included the work of the late WALTER G. HEADLAM

By GEORGE THOMSON

In two volumes. 25s. net each

Vol. I. Introduction; Greek text and parallel verse-translation;
Apparatus Criticus.

Vol. II. Commentary; Metrical Appendix; Supplement; Index

This edition of the Oresteia has been prepared in the belief that the first condition for understanding these three plays is that they should be studied together. The two volumes may be purchased separately, and the first has been designed so that it may be of use to students of literature who do not know Greek.

DEMOSTHENES

The Origin and Growth of His Policy

By WERNER JAEGER. 10s. 6d. net

Sather Classical Lectures

“His exposition is clear and judicious. The study of his prime is set against a carefully drawn background of the historical setting. . . . Professor Jaeger’s recall from the vagueness of Tendenzliteratur to the world of concrete fact is refreshing and salutary, and of a piece with his claim that the political issues and ideas revealed in this period are germane to the Europe of to-day.”—Times Literary Supplement.

THE GREEKS IN BACTRIA AND INDIA

By W. W. TARN. 30s. net

The story of Eastern Iran and Northern India under Greek rule, treated not as part of the history of India, as it has always been, but restored to its proper place in Hellenistic history. Dr Tarn’s sources include fragments of lost histories—Greek, Indian, and Chinese—coins, and the evidence of excavations.
