NEW from KNOPF DOUBLEDAY

BACK TO WORK

Why We Need Smart Government for a Strong Economy
by Bill Clinton

"A lucid one-man rebuttal of the Tea Party's anti-government agenda and a practical set of proposals . . . for restoring economic growth."
—Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times

"A reality-based strategy for economic renewal packed with ideas on how to fix America's job machine. . . . Offers some well-timed optimism. . . . Contains sensible ideas. . . . Articulate, engaging."
—Daniel Gross, The Washington Post

Knopf | Cloth | 208 pages | $23.95

THE RIGHTEOUS MIND

Why Good People Are Divided by Politics and Religion
by Jonathan Haidt

"A profound discussion of the diverse psychological roots of morality and their role in producing political conflicts." —Richard E. Nisbett, Theodore M. Newcomb Distinguished Professor, University of Michigan

"Haidt's research has revolutionized the field of moral psychology. His elegantly written book has far-reaching implications for anyone interested in politics, religion, or the many controversies that divide modern societies."
—Simon Baron-Cohen, Cambridge University, author of Zero Degrees of Empathy and The Science of Evil

Pantheon | Cloth | 448 pages | $28.95

ANATOMY OF INJUSTICE

A Murder Case Gone Wrong
by Raymond Bonner

An impassioned and incisive investigation into the many shortcomings of the justice system brought to light in the story of a grievously mishandled murder case in South Carolina that left an innocent man facing execution.

"Anatomy of Injustice is . . . a brave dispatch from the trenches of a forgotten war over capital punishment. Told with a reporter's tenacity, a lawyer's acumen, and an advocate's zeal, this book is both a gripping narrative and a chilling indictment of America's justice system."

—Tony Horwitz, author of Confederates in the Attic

Knopf | Cloth | 320 pages | $26.95

THE NEW HATE

A History of Fear and Loathing on the Populist Right
by Arthur Goldwag

A deeply researched, fascinating history of the role that organized hatred has played in American politics from Colonial times to our own.

"Arthur Goldwag confronts conspiracist fantasies and paranoia with reason and humanity. . . . His dissection of how the political fringe has edged into mainstream culture deserves the attention and admiration of everyone who is concerned about the coarsening of our politics."

—Mitch Horowitz, author of Occult America

Pantheon | Cloth | 384 pages | $27.95

THE FOX EFFECT

How Roger Ailes Turned a Network into a Propaganda Machine
by David Brock, Ari Rabin-Havt and Media Matters for America

The Fox Effect traces the ideological, business, and political history of FoxNews' evolution, under the leadership of former Republican political operative Roger Ailes, from a right-leaning news organization to an unabashed propaganda machine. Through numerous examples of the unethical journalistic behavior practiced by FoxNews' anchors, reporters, producers, and opinion journalists, watchdog group Media Matters exposes FoxNews' development into a powerful partisan advocate for the conservative wing of the Republican Party, with possibly even more influence than the Republican Party establishment itself.

THE AGE OF AUSTERITY

How Scarcity Will Remake American Politics
by Thomas Byrne Edsall

A sobering account of the pitched battles over scarce resources that will increasingly define American politics in the coming years and how we might avoid the damage from these ideological and economic conflicts.

"[Thomas Edsall] . . . deftly places the debates and controversies of the current moment in a broader historical and policy context. And he explains clearly why our economic woes have political causes—a fact that . . . urgently needs to be understood."

—Michael Tomasky, political columnist for Newsweek

Doubleday | Cloth | 272 pages | $24.95

THE WORLD AMERICA MADE

by Robert Kagan

For better, or for worse, the United States has been the world's pre-eminent power for the past six-decades, shaping and influencing international policy, spearheading global initiatives, and paving the way for democracy. Now, acclaimed journalist and historian Robert Kagan explores the origins and implications of post-war American dominance and assesses America's leadership role on the world stage. The World America Made is an essential examination of our country and its place in the modern world.

Knopf | Cloth | 160 pages | $21.00

MR. PRESIDENT

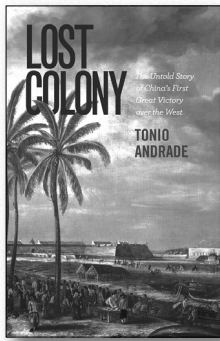

How and Why the Founders Created a Chief Executive
by Ray Raphael

"[P]resents to the reader a careful, lively, and in many respects, wholly surprising history of the origins and early development of the American presidency. This book will command the attention of both professional historians and the general reader for decades to come."

—Richard Beeman, author of Plain Honest Men

"[A] brilliant analysis of why our Founding Fathers thought a chief executive was necessary for the American democratic experiment to flourish. . . . A classic work of history!" —Douglas Brinkley, author of The Wilderness Warrior

Knopf | Cloth | 336 pages | $27.95

Lost Colony

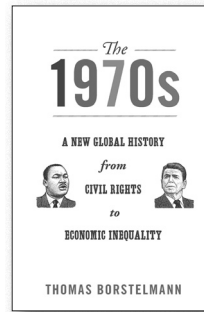

The Untold Story of China's First Great Victory over the West

Tonio Andrade

"You can read this book as an exciting novel full of pirates, swashbuckling characters, beheadings, treachery, and battles on land and sea—a novel that just happens to be true—or as a revelatory look at the little-known first war between China and the West, and a window into one of the biggest unsolved questions of world history: why Europe rather than China colonized the world from the time of Columbus onward. Either way, you will be sorry when you reach the last page."

—Jared Diamond, author of Guns, Germs, and Steel and Collapse

Cloth $35.00 978-0-691-14455-9

The 1970s

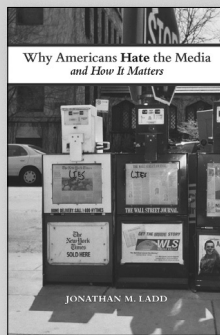

A New Global History from Civil Rights to Economic Inequality

Thomas Borstelmann

"Keeping contemporary history timely and accessible, Borstelmann shows the significance of 1970s politics, culture, and religion on the following decades. . . . The author's sterling commentary on the rise of the feminist movement, the decline of the Soviet empire, and the New Christian right's courtship of Capitol Hill sets this book apart from other surveys of the 'Me Decade.' Nuggets of genuine insight without any social agenda are found frequently within these pages."

—Publishers Weekly

Cloth $29.95 978-0-691-14156-5

Why Americans Hate the Media and How It Matters

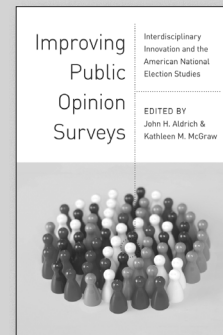

Jonathan M. Ladd

"Drawing on extensive literature from multiple areas, Ladd does a very good job presenting the best evidence on how trust of media institutions varies across time, on possible sources for distrust of the media, and the impact this distrust has on how people process information and make voting decisions. This clearly presented and well-organized book will interest those studying media, voting behavior, and U.S. campaigns and elections."

Improving Public Opinion Surveys

Interdisciplinary Innovation and the American National Election Studies

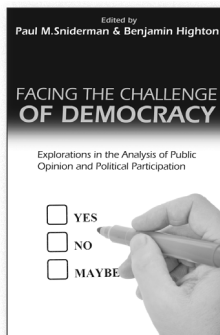

Edited by John H. Aldrich & Kathleen M. McGraw

"This book will be of keen interest to social scientists seeking to understand how today's American National Election Studies is constructed. In the new era of an open and transparent ANES, a catalog of the 2006 pilot study will be essential reading to scholars who wish to become a part of an ongoing process to recreate and preserve this vital public resource."

Facing the Challenge of Democracy

Explorations in the Analysis of Public Opinion and Political Participation

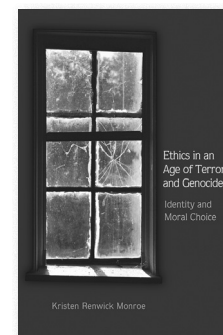

Edited by Paul M. Sniderman & Benjamin Highton

"This lucid collection should give pause to skeptics about democracy. It offers a strong argument that the public is more engaged, consistent in its opinions, and rational in its voting than conventional wisdom holds."

—Scott Keeter, Pew Research Center

Paper $35.00 978-0-691-15111-3

Ethics in an Age of Terror and Genocide

Identity and Moral Choice

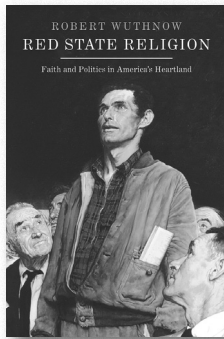

Kristen Renwick Monroe

"This is an excellent, compelling, and persuasive book. The interviews, in particular, constitute a priceless resource and are a phenomenal contribution to our understanding of individual variance, societal pressure, and the tremendous burden of fully accepting freedom in moral choice. A tour de force."

—Rose McDermott, Brown University

Red State Religion

Faith and Politics in America's Heartland
Robert Wuthnow

"This is a fascinating portrait of the interplay between religion and politics in the Midwest over the past 150 years. It also provides a necessary corrective to accounts that have long portrayed Kansas as a monolithic cultural backwater populated by dupes who cannot grasp their own interests. As a native son, Robert Wuthnow has an understanding of Kansas that runs deep; as a leading scholar, he provides an analysis with broad implications."

—Brian Steensland, Indiana University

Cloth $35.00 978-0-691-15055-0

Strings Attached

Untangling the Ethics of Incentives
Ruth W. Grant

"Moving comfortably from Plato, modern philosophy, and organizational science to plea bargaining, medical research, and IMF loans, this impressive book lays bare some of the ethical complexities raised by the use of incentives in various social and political contexts. A comprehensive look at an underanalyzed topic, this book is a pleasure to read."

—Alan Wertheimer, National Institutes of Health

Cloth $24.95 978-0-691-15160-1

Party Competition

An Agent-Based Model
Michael Laver & Ernest Sergenti

"Party Competition is an ambitious and pioneering work. Laver and Sergenti present a new methodology for the study of a quite central and traditional problem in political science. This is to my knowledge the first book-length treatise on the evolutionary modeling of party competition."

—Hannu Nurmi, author of Models of Political Economy

Paper $29.95 978-0-691-13904-3
Cloth $65.00 978-0-691-13903-6

The Liberty of Servants

Berlusconi's Italy
Maurizio Viroli
Translated by Antony Shugaar
With a new introduction by the author

"In this razor-sharp, beautifully crafted, historically informative, and deeply thoughtful exposé of Berlusconi's degrading 'courtier' regime, one of our foremost intellectual historians and political theorists shows how citizens can voluntarily surrender political liberty for private freedom. Viroli's civic indignation is both an education and an inspiration."

—Stephen Holmes, New York University
Cloth $27.95 978-0-691-15182-3

The Emancipation of Europe's Muslims

The State's Role in Minority Integration
Jonathan Laurence

"Laurence has written a brilliantly mature book about a topic that frequently provokes sophomoric exaggeration. The book is remarkable for its practical acumen and comparative-historical depth. It presents a strong alternative to current so-called common wisdom."

—Jytte Klausen, author of The Cartoons That Shook the World

Paper $29.95 978-0-691-14422-1

After Adam Smith

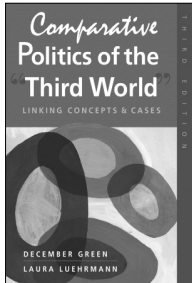

A Century of Transformation in Politics and Political Economy
Murray Milgate & Shannon C. Stimson

"This is an important, sound analysis of the interrelation between political and economic theory in the century after Adam Smith. . . . This book exemplifies the best contemporary work on the nexus of political and economic theory."

APSA STATE OF THE PROFESSION SERIES Publishing Political Science

This guide to publishing in political science provides practical advice from leading political scientists and publishers. The book opens with a discussion of the state of publishing and review of publishing opportunities for political science.

The second part covers writing for particular venues and audiences such as literature reviews, textbooks, journals, blogs, and reference books. The third section provides practical advice from publishers on how to get your work published, including writing successful book proposals, establishing sound contract with a publisher, and understanding the journal peer review process.

A useful guide for ALL political scientists
