The Form is a single, integrated, full-text document with different type styles to identify model (less frequently variable) provisions, negotiable (more frequently variable) provisions and instructions.

Over 260 reference and commentary footnotes appear at the bottom of the applicable pages.

A Mortgage Committee of distinguished experts served as advisors and consultants during the many years in the Form's development.

The Form has been reviewed and approved by the S.E.C. Division of Corporation Finance for compliance with the Trust Indenture Act of 1939.
