Make a difference to your profession and become a CJNS reviewer

The Canadian Journal of Neurological Sciences (CJNS) is always looking for talented and skilled reviewers to submit timely and high quality reviews of manuscripts. Without these volunteers, the Journal cannot maintain a steady stream of high quality, informational articles relevant to readers.

Reviewing for CJNS supports Canadian clinical neurosciences. Make it your top refereeing priority.

The Benefits of Becoming a Reviewer:

- An annual record of all your refereeing contributions for academic promotional purposes.
- Your name included in the "Thank you to Reviewers" list in the February issue of CJNS.
- Eligibility for the "Distinguished Reviewer of the Year" award, recognizing extensive, timely and high quality reviews.
- Reviewers who regularly contribute to the CJNS are considered for the Editorial Board.
- Credits towards your Maintenance of Certification.
- Serving as a CJNS reviewer supports your journal and Canadian clinical neurosciences.
