New Vico Studies

The Institute for Vico Studies, New York, is pleased to announce the publication of New Vico Studies 1 (1983), a serial intended to make a place for articles, discussions, reviews, abstracts, and notes that reflect the current state of the study of the thought of Giambattista Vico. The study of Vico is understood to be not only the study of Vico's work but to be inclusive of ideas that are Vichian in nature, ideas that may have some special interest for those involved in Vico's thought.

New Vico Studies is conceived as a series of volumes that will appear on an approximate yearly basis. Its editors are Giorgio Tagliacozzo, Founder and Director of the Institute for Vico Studies, and Donald Phillip Verene, Chairman of the Department of Philosophy of Emory University. Members of the Editorial Board are Andrea Battistini (University of Bologna), Isaiah Berlin (Oxford University), Max H. Fisch (Indiana University–Purdue University), Ernesto Grassi (University of Munich), Leon Pompa (University of Birmingham, England), Alain Pons (University of Paris–Nanterre), Hayden White (University of California, Santa Cruz). The contributors to volume one are Naomi S. Baron, David Black, Gustavo Costa, Margherita Frankel, Linda Gardiner-Janik, Howard Gardner, Bruce A. Haddock, William M. Johnston, Eckhard Kessler, John Michael Krois, Edith Kurzweil, Harold Samuel Stone, Nancy S. Struever, Noriyuki Sugiura, Giorgio Tagliacozzo, Donald Phillip Verene, and Hayden White.

Questions concerning this publication and submission of materials should be addressed to the Institute for Vico Studies, 69 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003. To order New Vico Studies 1 (1983), please send cheque or money order for $12.50, plus $1.00 for postage and handling, payable to: New Vico Studies, 69 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003.
