to remind you—

THE SCORE OF THE MONTH CLUB

is a club without admission fee or subscription. Membership is entirely free.

Each month a full score of a classical or modern work is offered for sale to all members, who are notified in advance of the work chosen and its price, the notification including an informative programme note.

Every member is fully entitled to refuse the score

If he accepts it, it is supplied to him (C.O.D. unless he has an account) at the normal selling price.

With every fourth score purchased within the year, the member receives, entirely free of charge, a “dividend” full score, chosen by himself from a wide and varied list.

Since its inauguration in 1948, this unique service has proved invaluable to conductors, students, and music lovers generally. In addition, Boosey & Hawkes Information Bulletins, which give news of important events in the sphere of contemporary music, are supplied to members free of charge.

Scores to be offered during the next few months include works by William Alwyn, Bach, Bartók, Britten, Elgar, Kodály, Martinů and Strawinsky. “Dividend” scores at present available include works by Albinoni, Beethoven, Arthur Benjamin, Britten, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Prokofieff, Purcell, Strawinsky and Weber.

All scores offered are full size (not miniature) orchestral scores, average dimensions 10 in. x 13 in.

If you are interested in full scores, why not acquire them in the most economical way?
