

IN MEMORIAM

S. G. VAN LOOY

We deeply regret having to announce the sudden death of Mr. S. G. van Looy, Manager of A. W. Sijthoff's Publishing Company Ltd.

That this Review came into existence is greatly due to the fact that we found in Mr. van Looy a man who was ready to endorse our plans and energetic in helping us to realise them. In a later stage, he gave us all possible assistance in handling the technicalities of editing this Review.

His amiable personality and our agreeable collaboration with him complete the thankful memory we retain of him in our minds.
