A NEW APPROACH to spiritual realities for Catholics of to-day, yet one as old as the Church herself, is an active and intelligent taking part in the Liturgy of the Church. 'The people are better instructed in the truths of faith by the annual celebration of our sacred mysteries than by even the weightiest pronouncements of the teaching of the Church.' (Encyclical on the Feast of the Kingship of Christ.)

A Double Event

On Friday, May 17th, THE CATHOLIC TIMES will celebrate two great occasions, the canonisation of BB. John Fisher and Thomas More, the standard-bearers of our Martyrs' glorious cause, as well as the Diamond Jubilee of its own foundation by a Special Double Number.

Recent investigations have shown that THE CATHOLIC TIMES, the oldest Catholic popular newspaper, was not founded as a bolt from the blue on June 8th, 1860. There had been several other attempts to bring into being "an organ of the Catholic body for the North of England," and when the latest of them, The Lancashire Free Press, failed, the Company was taken over by new owners, who launched a new paper, The Northern Press and Liverpool Advertiser, which, Catholic from the beginning and professedly so, was to change its title finally to THE CATHOLIC TIMES.

The story is most interesting and will be told in full in the Special Double Number, price 3d. for that issue only, on sale on Friday, May 17th. With this number will be presented free a entitled

Oh my Father! Oh my Father!

This superb painting, specially done for THE CATHOLIC TIMES, will be in full colours to match "The Breaking of the Storm," which, by the same artist, delighted our readers at Christmas. It shows the famous meeting of Bl. Thomas More with his daughter Margaret.

THE NEW Catholic Herald

For some months we have tried to sing our own praises to the readers of Blackfriars. Now we have the pleasure of giving them the judgment of no less a man than

MR. G. K. CHESTERTON

speaking on a public platform :

“ There is only one paper I know in England, which gives you some sort of idea of what Europe is like and that is the Catholic Herald.

“Possibly you have never even seen it. It has lately been taken over by people who do know a lot about Europe, and if you are really eager to obtain first-hand information from reliable sources about what the Russians have to say for themselves, or what the Nazis or any others are doing, read the Catholic Herald—no matter whether you are a Catholic, a theosophist, or even a devil-worshipper—for it is one of the best-informed papers of the day.”
