SCORE OF THE MONTH CLUB

This September the Club enters its third year. There is no admission fee, and to remain a member it is merely necessary to purchase four of the twelve full scores offered within a year. With every fourth score bought, a "dividend" score, free of charge, may be chosen from a selected list. The scores offered include both contemporary and earlier works, the list for the twelve months commencing in September including the names of Richard Strauss, Strawinsky, Rachmaninoff, Prokofieff, Delius, Ireland, Martinu, Benjamin, Copland and Britten. The dividend scores for the same period include works by Albinoni, Weber, Mendelssohn, Strawinsky and Prokofieff.

The scheme is of great value not only to conductors but also to students and music lovers generally, particularly as many of the works listed are not available in miniature score or any other form. Members are informed monthly of the next score to be offered, the notification leaflet including a programme note.
