Articles submitted for publication in the International Review of the Red Cross

The International Review of the Red Cross invites readers to submit articles relating to the various activities of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement or to international humanitarian law. These will be considered for publication on the basis of merit and relevance to the topics covered by the Review.

Manuscripts may be submitted in English, French, Spanish, Arabic or Russian.

Texts should be typed, double-spaced, and no longer than 20 pages (or 5,000 words). The word processing software used by the ICRC is AmiPro 3.1. If possible, therefore, documents should be submitted on diskette with the texts in either AmiPro or ASCII.

Footnotes should be numbered superscript in the main text. They should be typed, double-spaced, and grouped at the end of the article.

Bibliographical references should be given in the original language of publication and should include the following details:

(a) for books, the author's initials and surname (in that order), book title (in italics), place of publication, publisher and year of publication (in that order), and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.);

(b) for articles, the author's initials and surname, article title (in inverted commas), title of periodical (in italics), volume number, place of publication, date of publication, and page number(s) referred to (p. or pp.).

The Review reserves the right to edit all articles before publication.

Manuscripts, whether published or unpublished, will not be returned.

Manuscripts, correspondence relating to their publication and requests for permission to reproduce texts appearing in the Review should be addressed to the editor.

Texts published by the Review reflect the views of the author alone and not necessarily those of the ICRC. The same applies to editorial texts. Only texts bearing an ICRC signature may be ascribed to the institution.

The International Review of the Red Cross is the official publication of the International Committee of the Red Cross. It was first published in 1869 under the title "Bulletin international des Sociétés de secours aux militaires blessés", and then "Bulletin international des Sociétés de la Croix-Rouge".

The International Review of the Red Cross is a forum for reflection and comment and serves as a reference work on the mission and guiding principles of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement. It is also a specialized journal in the field of international humanitarian law and other aspects of humanitarian endeavour.

As a chronicle of the international activities of the Movement and a record of events, the International Review of the Red Cross is a constant source of information and maintains a link between the components of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

The International Review of the Red Cross is published four times a year, in five languages:

French: REVUE INTERNATIONALE DE LA CROIX-ROUGE (since October 1869)

English: INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF THE RED CROSS (since April 1961)

Spanish: REVISTA INTERNACIONAL DE LA CRUZ ROJA (since January 1976)

Arabic: المجلة الدولية للصليب الأحمر (since May-June 1988)

Russian: МЕЖДУНАРОДНЫЙ ЖУРНАЛ КРАСНОГО КРЕСТА (since November-December 1994)

Articles appearing in the Review are accessible on the ICRC Web site, under the heading "Publications/Periodicals", at the following addresses:
