

Special Awards for Residents and Junior Members

The Francis McNaughton Prize

presented by

The Canadian Neurological Society

- *Awarded annually for the best paper in clinical research done during the neurology residency or in post residency training.
- *Junior members of the Canadian Neurological Society and Active members within two years of certification are eligible.
- *Papers should be prepared in the format prescribed in the Canadian Journal of Neurological Sciences and submitted in triplicate to Dr. Garth Bray, President, Canadian Neurological Society, Division of Neurology, Montreal General Hospital, 1650 Cedar Avenue, Montreal, Quebec H3G 1A4

The André Barbeau Memorial Prize

presented by

The Canadian Neurological Society

- *Awarded annually for the best paper in basic research done during the neurology residency or in post residency training.
- *Junior members of the Canadian Neurological Society and Active members within two years of certification are eligible.
- *Papers should be prepared in the format prescribed in the Canadian Journal of Neurological Sciences and submitted in triplicate to Dr. Garth Bray, President, Canadian Neurological Society, Division of Neurology, Montreal General Hospital, 1650 Cedar Avenue, Montreal, Quebec H3G 1A4

The K.G. McKenzie Memorial Awards

presented by

The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

in cooperation with The Canadian Neurosurgical Society

- *Award 1 is awarded to the best paper submitted by a neurosurgical resident in which he is the principal author.
- *Award 2 is a grant-in-aid awarded to support a specific educational project.
- The applicant must be a resident in training in a Canadian Neurosurgical Training program, or within two years of having received certification in Neurosurgery.
- Applicants should forward a comprehensive letter containing relevant personal information, a clear description of the educational project contemplated, its purpose, and any supporting letters the applicant may wish to submit.
- *Applications and completed manuscripts should be sent to Dr. B.K.A. Weir, Chairman, K.G. McKenzie Awards Committee, University of Alberta, Dept. of Surgery, Walter C. MacKenzie Health Sciences Centre, Edmonton, Alberta T6G 2B7

The Herbert Jasper Prize

presented by

The Canadian Society of Clinical Neurophysiologists

- *Awarded annually for the best submitted paper in clinical or basic neurophysiology by a resident or a fellow in training. Others within three years of receiving a doctorate or a fellowship are also eligible.
- *Full papers should be prepared in the format prescribed by the Canadian Journal of Neurological Sciences and include a report of the research project findings and relevant related materials.
- *Submit applications in triplicate to Dr. Werner Becker, Calgary General Hospital, Rm. M4-022, Centre Avenue East, Calgary, Alberta T2E 0A1

The President's Prize

presented by

The Canadian Association for Child Neurology

- *Awarded annually for the best paper in pediatric neuroscience submitted by a resident in training or a fellow.
- *Manuscripts should be prepared in the format prescribed by the Canadian Journal of Neurological Sciences and submitted in triplicate to: Dr. Kevin Farrell, Children's Hospital, 4480 Oak Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6H 3V4

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS IS JANUARY 23, 1989

For additional information please contact the Secretariat, Canadian Congress of Neurological Sciences,
(403) 229-9544, P.O. Box 4220, Station C, Calgary, Alberta T2T 5N1