CONTENTS

PART 1 (OCTOBER 1956)

	PAGE
CAMPBELL, R. C., DOTT, H. M. and GLOVER, T. D. Nigrosin eosin as a stain for differentiating live and dead spermatozoa. (With One Text-figure)	1
BARNICOAT, C. R., MURRAY, P. F., ROBERTS, E. M. and WILSON, G. S. Milk secretion studies with New Zealand Romney ewes. Parts V–XI. (With Four Text-figures)	9
HUNTER, G. L. The maternal influence on size in sheep. (With Plates 1–3 and Sixteen Text-figures)	36
CALLOW, E. H. and SEARLE, S. R. Comparative studies of meat. V. Factors affecting the iodine number of the fat from the fatty and muscular tissues of cattle. (With One Text-figure)	61
COOKE, G. W. (ed.). Field experiments on phosphate fertilizers. A joint investigation	74
CHAKRAVARTY, A. K., DRAYNER, JEAN M. and FYFE, J. L. Plant-breeding studies in leguminous forage crops. III. Preliminary studies on the developmental physiology of English stocks of beans (Vicia faba L.). (With Nine Text-figures)	104
HOLMES, J. C. and TAHIR, W. M. The effect of some factors on growth, development and yield of winter wheat	115
FINNEY, D. J. and NISSEN, Ø. Incomplete determination of a measure of quality in a series of experiments	124

PART 2 (DECEMBER 1956)

RUSSELL, E. W. The effects of very deep ploughing and of subsoiling on crop yields	129
HOOD, A. E. M. Nitrogenous manuring of grass-clover leys for conservation, with particular reference to 'late' top-dressing	145
FERGUSON, W. S. and TERRY, R. A. The effect of nitrogenous fertilizers on the non-protein nitrogenous fraction of grassland herbage	149
GLEW, G. An investigation into the relationship between the metabolism of pyruvate in bull spermatozoa and fertility. (With One Text-figure)	153
MANN, HAROLD H. and BARNES, T. W. The permanence of organic matter added to soil	160
MAHADEVAN, P. Variation in performance of European dairy cattle in Ceylon	164
TYLER, CYRIL. The metabolic significance of variations in the shell calcium: retained calcium relationship between individual laying hens	171
BENZIE, D., BOYNE, A. W., DALGARNO, A. C., DUCKWORTH, J., HILL, R. and WALKER, D. M. Studies of the skeleton of the sheep. II. The relationship between calcium intake and resorption and repair of the skeleton in pregnancy and lactation. (With Two Text-figures)	175
LEECH, F. B., EGDELL, J. W. and THOMAS, S. B. A survey of methods of milk production. II. Statistical analysis of bacteriological tests on milk samples	187

BLAXTER, K. L. and ROOK, J. A. F. The indirect determination of energy retention in farm animals. I. The development of method. (With Two Text-figures)	194
BLAXTER, K. L. and ROOK, J. A. F. The indirect determination of energy retention in farm animals. II. Studies on the validity of the method. (With Three Text-figures)	210
SMITH, H. and LUCAS, I. A. M. The early weaning of pigs. I. The effect upon growth of variations in the protein, fat, sucrose, antibiotic, vitamin and mineral contents of diets for pigs of 8-25 lb. live weight and a comparison of wet and dry feeding. (With Plate 4 and One Text-figure)	220
ZALESKI, A. Lucerne investigation. II. Pollination and seed setting in lucerne strains. (With Plate 5 and One Text-figure)	236
DONALD, H. P. and PURSER, A. F. Competition in utero between twin lambs	245
ENGLEDOW, SIR F. L., BELL, G. D. H. and LUPTON, F. G. H. A study of the value of repeated backcrossing of a pentaploid hybrid of Triticum vulgare (cult. var. Little Joss) and T. turgidum (cult. var. Rivett). (With Plate 6)	250
PART 3 (FEBRUARY 1957)
PRESTON, T. R., ARCHIBALD, J. D. H. and TINKLER, W. The digestibility of grass by young calves. (With Four Text-figures)	259
THORNE, GILLIAN N. Application of an April top-dressing of nitrogen to winter wheat in a spray with 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetic acid	266
LAMBOURNE, L. J. Measurement of feed intake of grazing sheep. I. Rate of passage of inert reference materials through the ruminant digestive tract. (With Six Text-figures)	273
SPEDDING, C. W. R. and BROWN, T. H. A study of subclinical worm infestation in sheep. I. The effect of level of infestation on the growth of the lamb. (With Four Text-figures)	286
LAZENBY, ALEC. The problem of assessing strains. A study in grass-breeding technique. (With Two Text-figures)	294
CASTLE, M. E., FOOT, A. S., HOSKING, ZENA D. and ROWLAND, S. J. The yield and composition of kale and cabbage with and without nitrogenous top-dressing. (With One Text-figure)	305
BARNETT, A. JOHN G. and REID, R. L. Studies on the production of volatile fatty acids from grass by rumen liquor in an artificial rumen. I. The volatile acid production of fresh grass. (With Plate 7 and Six Text-figures)	315
BRAUDE, R. and ROWELL, J. G. Labour saving in feeding of fattening pigs	322
SALT, G. A. Effects of nitrogen applied at different dates, and of other cultural treatments on eyespot, take-all and yield of winter wheat (field experiment, 1953). (With Plate 8 and Four Text-figures)	326
DENT, J. W. The chemical composition of the straw and grain of some varieties of spring oats in relation to time of harvesting, nitrogen treatment and environment	336
BARBER, R. S., BRAUDE, R. and MITCHELL, K. G. Comparison of six different levels of feeding for fattening pigs	347
BREMNER, J. M. Studies on soil humic acids. II. Observations on the estimation of free amino groups. Reactions of humic acid and lignin preparations with nitrous acid	352

	PAGE
BARKER, M. G., HANLEY, F. and RIDGMAN, W. J. Studies on lucerne and lucerne-grass leys. IV. The effect of systems of grazing management on persistence of a lucerne-cocksfoot ley. (With Plates 9 and 10)	361
HALE, R. W. and BROWN, W. O. Sunflower meal as a protein concentrate for laying hens. (With Two Text-figures)	366
GLOVER, J., DUTHIE, D. W. and FRENCH, M. H. The apparent digestibility of crude protein by the ruminant. I. A synthesis of the results of digestibility trials with herbage and mixed feeds. (With Eight Text-figures)	373
FRENCH, M. H., GLOVER, J. and DUTHIE, D. W. The apparent digestibility of crude protein by the ruminant. II. The general equation and some of its implications. (With One Text-figure)	379
FRENCH, M. H. The apparent digestibility of crude protein by the ruminant. III. The application of the general equation to rations containing urea. (With One Text-figure)	384

PART 4 (APRIL 1957)

OWEN, J. B. A study of the lactation and growth of hill sheep in their native environment and under lowland conditions. (With Plates 11 and 12 and Two Text-figures)	387
THOMAS, BRYNMOR and FAIRBAIRN, C. B. A note on the digestibility of Nardus stricta	413
LAMBOURNE, L. J. Measurement of feed intake of grazing sheep. II. The estimation of faeces output using markers. (With Seven Text-figures)	415
RENDEL, J. M., ROBERTSON, ALAN, ASKER, A. A., KHISHIN, S. S. and RAGAB, M. T. The inheritance of milk production characteristics	426
EVANS, JOHN V. and MOUNIB, M. S. A survey of the potassium concentration in the blood cells of British breeds of sheep. (With One Text-figure)	433
LEWIS, D. Blood-urea concentration in relation to protein utilization in the ruminant. (With Six Text-figures)	438
BUNTING, E. S. and WILLEY, L. A. The emergence of maize from field sowings in Great Britain. I. The effect of date of sowing on the extent and speed of emergence of different varieties. (With Four Text-figures)	447
KING, J. W. B. and YOUNG, G. B. Maternal influences on litter size in pigs	457
BOYD, D. A., GARNER, H. V. and HAINES, W. B. The fertilizer requirements of sugar beet. (With Two Text-figures)	464
BOYD, D. A. The manuring of sugar beet	477
