NATIONS IN A MULTIPOLAR WORLD

Cecil V. Crabb, Jr.

The author examines and analyzes succinctly, yet completely, the basic data needed to understand the field of international relations. Recognizing that the field of international relations is vast and diverse, he utilizes several approaches or principles to make the subject matter meaningful, intelligible, and relevant. Historical background, domestic factors, economic and sociological data, "behavioral" approaches, and ideological and philosophical studies are related, where significant, to the country or region under examination.

THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE REVIEW, published quarterly during the months of March, June, September, and December, is supplied to all APSA members. Individual and institutional memberships are $15.00 a year ($6.00 for graduate and undergraduate students; five-year limitation). Foreign currency at the official exchange rate will be accepted for foreign subscriptions and foreign membership fees. The equivalent of $1 for additional postage should be added for foreign subscriptions.

Current issues are priced at $3.75 per copy; for back issues prior to 1963 address Johnson Reprint Corp., 111 5th Ave., New York, N.Y. 10003; subsequent to 1963 send request directly to the American Political Science Association.

Applications for membership, orders for the REVIEW, and remittances should be addressed to the Executive Director, The American Political Science Association, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Notices of change of address should be received in the Washington office by the 25th day of the month before publication.

Address correspondence about contributions to the REVIEW to Austin Ranney, North Hall, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis. 53706. All manuscripts should be submitted IN DUPLICATE. They should be double-spaced and may be in typed, mimeographed, hectographed, or other legible form. Footnotes should appear at the end of the manuscript, not at the bottom of the page.

Since manuscripts are sent out anonymously for editorial evaluation, the author's name and affiliations should appear only on a separate covering page. All footnotes identifying the author should also appear on a separate page.

Address books intended for review to Richard F. Fenno, 575 Mount Hope Avenue, Rochester, New York 14620; information, including News and Notes, for the Association's newsletter P. S., should be sent to 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036; advertising, reprint and circulation correspondence to the Executive Director at the Washington office.

Articles and notes appearing in the REVIEW before the June, 1953 issue were indexed in The Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature. The International Political Science Abstracts and the International Index to Periodicals index current issues. Microfilm of the REVIEW, beginning with Volume 1, may be obtained from University Microfilms, 313 North First Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan. A Cumulative Index of the REVIEW, Volumes 1-57: 1906-1963, may be obtained from Northwestern University Press, 1735 Benson, Evanston, Illinois.

The BIG Issues in Politics ...from Spectrum Books

Uses of the Seas An American Assembly Book

edited by Edmund A. Gullion, Tufts University

The race for the oceans' riches has begun! Who should regulate their use? In this book, a distinguished group of economists, political scientists, foreign policy experts, and marine scientists face the issues raised by an expanding sea technology. The contributors reveal the financial, political, legal, and international implications for government and industry, and provided needed guidelines for American policy on the use and exploration of the seas. Sept., 1968 Paper $2.45, Cloth $4.95

Law in a Changing America An American Assembly Book

edited by Geoffrey C. Hazard, Jr., University of Chicago

In articles ranging from the effect of social science on law and law making, to the controversial issues of individual rights and social responsibility, the fifteen authorities who contribute to this book propose far-reaching suggestions for reform of the American legal profession. June, 1968 Paper $2.45, Cloth $5.95

The Politics of Violence Revolution in the Modern World

by Carl Leiden and Karl Schmitt, both of the University of Texas

Using Cuba, Mexico, Turkey, and Egypt as examples, the authors analyze the causes and meaning of violent revolution in the twentieth century. They project their findings into the future to reveal the course of today's potential revolutions. April, 1968 Paper $2.45, Cloth $5.95

Modernizing American Government The Demands of Social Change

edited by Murray S. Stedman, Jr., Trinity College

Seven authorities assess the structure and functions of American government today and offer provocative proposals for modernizing out-of-date methods and institutions. April, 1968 Paper $1.95, Cloth $4.95
