China's Environmental Health Crisis and its Challenge to the Chinese State

YANZHONG HUANG

“ In this astonishingly prescient analysis, Yanzhong Huang zeroes in on the vital link between China’s political health and its physical health. His tough, fair-minded, deeply knowledgeable book not only diagnoses grave problems lurking behind China’s environmental progress but also provides a cautionary note about China’s bid for global leadership. Anyone who wants to predict China’s growth prospects needs to read this. ”

Information for prospective contributors

The Editors invite online submissions of manuscripts for publication in Transnational Environmental Law via TEL's ScholarOne online submissions and review platform:

mc.manuscriptcentral.com/TEL_submissions

Before submitting their work online, authors are strongly urged to refer to the instructions for manuscript preparation (including house style, referencing format, and additional guidance). For detailed submission instructions, see:

The Editors will also consider revised versions of previously released working papers, provided that such publication is clearly acknowledged upon submission of the paper for consideration to TEL.

TEL strives to respect an expedient turn-around time of 6–8 weeks between receipt of the manuscript and first notification of acceptance, rejection or need for revision.

The length of manuscripts should normally range between 8,000 and 11,000 words (including footnotes) for full-length articles; 3,000–6,000 words for commentaries and case notes; and 800–1,500 words for book reviews. Exceptionally, shorter or longer works may be considered at the Editors' discretion.
