Think has been created to forge a direct link between contemporary philosophy and the widest possible readership. The central aim of the journal is to provide to a very wide audience – encompassing undergraduates, 'A' level students, students in further education and the general public – highly accessible and engaging writing by philosophers pre-eminent in their fields.

Editorial Policy of Philosophy

The editorial policy of the journal pursues the aims of the Institute: to promote the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, mind and education. The Institute is not committed to any school or method and its membership is not restricted to those with special qualifications in philosophy. Contributors are expected to avoid all needless technicality.

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Professor Anthony O'Hear, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AR. Contributions should on no account be longer than 10,000 words. Generally speaking far shorter is much to be preferred. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. When an article has been accepted for publication, the author must send a copy of the final version as a Word document, together with the hard copy typescript.

Authors should observe the conventions of the journal. The Editor will alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to journal style. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be in italics, as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be given as footnotes, as follows:

- 1 John Hyman, 'Pains and Places', Philosophy 78 (2003), 5–24.
- 2 R. B. Loudon, Morality and Moral Theory (New York and Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1992).
- 3 Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

Submissions will not be returned.

Only corrections of typesetter's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Professor O'Hear as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.
