All communications, whether editorial or business, including copy for advertisements, notices of change of address, requests, and complaints, should be addressed to The Renaissance Society at the above address. Back numbers are available, Volumes I and II only on microfilm. Second-class mailing privileges authorized at New York, N. Y.

Renaissance News is available only to members of the Society. Membership is open to libraries and institutions at the same rate as to individuals. Dues are $4 for regular members, $10 for sustaining members, $25 for patron members, and $100 for benefactor members.

Applications for membership should be made on a 3x5 card giving your name, mailing address, and field of special interest. Academic members are asked to give also title, department, and institution as these should appear in the directory. Make your check payable to The Renaissance Society of America, Inc.

Besides the quarterly issues of Renaissance News all members receive an annual volume of Studies in the Renaissance, a volume of studies of various aspects of the Renaissance in the fields less well covered by journals devoted to a single discipline.

Renaissance News attempts to keep members informed of local Renaissance Conferences, and of the projects and activities of the Society so that those who wish can make contact with local organizations, or can contribute to the work of carrying forward some one of the scholarly undertakings of the Society.
