Aims and Scope: The Journal of Economic History seeks to promote the scholarly study of economic aspects of the human past from a diversity of perspectives, notably those of economists and historians. By encouraging careful formulation of issues and clear exposition of methods, THE JOURNAL hopes to stimulate discourse among scholars with varied interests and modes of inquiry.

THE JOURNAL is abstracted in The Journal of Economic Literature, which is part of the DIALOG on-line data service.

Instructions for Contributors: Articles on economic history and related aspects of history or economics will be considered for publication by the Editors on the understanding that the articles have not previously been published and are not under consideration elsewhere. Papers should indicate the wider significance of detailed original research findings as well as the logic and limitations of specialized techniques of analysis. Comments and shorter notes are also welcome. THE JOURNAL does not accept unsolicited book reviews, nor can it honor requests to review particular works. Contributions should be kept within 35 double-spaced pages, inclusive of footnotes, references, figures, and tables. Three copies of each manuscript should be submitted. Prospective contributors may obtain a copy of the Style Sheet for THE JOURNAL from the Editorial Office. A submission fee of $25.00 or a year's membership (fee schedule below) is required from nonmembers of the Association.

Editorial Office Address: The Editors, The Journal of Economic History, Department of Economics, Northwestern University, 2003 Sheridan Road, Evanston, IL 60208-2600, U.S.A. Telephone: (847) 491-2903, FAX: (847) 491-7001, E-mail: jeh@nwu.edu

Association Office Address and Membership Information: Individuals who are members of the Economic History Association receive THE JOURNAL as part of their annual dues. Membership rates (in U.S. dollars) are $40.00 for those with income above $40,000 a year; $25.00 for those with income below $40,000; $15.00 for students and for professors emeriti who have been members of the Association for ten years; $800.00 or 20 times the annual rate for life membership. Payment of additional $32.00 permits joint membership with the Economic History Society (UK). Applications and inquiries concerning membership should be addressed to the Economic History Association, Dept. of Economics, 213 Summerfield, University of Kansas, Lawrence, KS 66045-2113.
