The Asian Journal of International Law (AsianJIL) is the journal of the Asian Society of International Law.

Sign up for sample articles, table-of-content alerts and news emails here www.AsianJIL.org

AsianJIL publishes peer-reviewed scholarly articles and book reviews on public and private international law. Articles focus on Asian issues or bring one of the many Asian perspectives to bear on global issues, but AsianJIL is also of more general interest to scholars, practitioners, and policymakers located in or working on Asia.

The Cambridge Law Journal

Editor

John Bell University of Cambridge, UK

The Cambridge Law Journal publishes articles on all aspects of law. Special emphasis is placed on contemporary developments, but the journal's range includes jurisprudence and legal history. An important feature of the journal is the Case and Comment section, in which members of the Cambridge Law Faculty and other distinguished contributors analyse recent judicial decisions, new legislation and current law reform proposals. The articles and case notes are designed to have the widest appeal to those interested in the law – whether as practitioners, students, teachers, judges or administrators – and to provide an opportunity for them to keep abreast of new ideas and the progress of legal reform. Each issue also contains an extensive section of book reviews.

Netherlands International Law Review

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

Editor-in-Chief

P. Vlas, Free University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands

The Netherlands International Law Review (NILR) addresses relevant topics and recent trends in international law and the conflict of laws, including their comparative legal aspects. Articles are combined with English-language reports on topical Dutch judicial decisions, surveys of the case law on the topic of civil jurisdiction and enforcement of judgments in Europe, an update on the current developments regarding The Hague's international tribunals, an overview of the Hague Conventions on Private International Law, book reviews, and occasionally, a short commentary on case law or legislation. The journal serves as a reliable source of information for scholars and practitioners and anyone who wants to stay up-to-date with the most important developments in these fields.

**Please note a subscription includes an annual volume of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law (NYIL)**

Hague Journal on the Rule of Law

Marketed and distributed for T.M.C. Asser Press

Editors-in-Chief

Julio Faundez, Warwick University, UK

Randy Peerenboom, La Trobe University Melbourne, Australia, and Associate Fellow Oxford University Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, UK

This exciting new journal provides a timely forum for the rapidly-expanding field of the rule of law, encapsulating cutting-edge study from all related disciplines.

This unique centre for the exchange of views between academics and practitioners gives focus to the promotion of the rule of law on both the national and international stage.

The journal aims to deepen and broaden the knowledge of the rule of law and its relation to economic growth, poverty reduction, promotion of democracy, protection of human rights and geopolitical stability. The journal invites and will publish academic articles, practitioner reports and commentary, book reviews and special volumes on major developments and themes in the rule of law field.

International Law

Editors-in-Chief

Carsten Stahn, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Eric de Brabandere, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

Information for prospective contributors

The Editors invite online submissions of manuscripts for publication in Transnational Environmental Law via TEL's ScholarOne online submissions and review platform:

http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/TEL\_submissions

Before submitting their work online, authors are strongly urged to refer to the instructions for manuscript preparation (including house style, referencing format, and additional guidance). For detailed submission instructions, see:

<http://www.journals.cambridge.org/TEL/ifc>

All other inquiries and correspondence related to TEL should be addressed to TEL@cambridge.org or to one or both of the TEL Editors-in-Chief, at the addresses listed on this inside cover.

All contributions in the journal are double-blind peer-reviewed. All manuscripts must entail original, previously unpublished work, and should not be under consideration for publication elsewhere. The Editors will also consider revised versions of previously released working papers, provided that such publication is clearly acknowledged upon submission of the paper for consideration to TEL.

TEL strives to respect an expedient turn-around time of 6 – 8 weeks between receipt of the manuscript and first notification of acceptance, rejection or need for revision.

The length of manuscripts should normally range between 8,000 and 11,000 words (including footnotes) for full-length articles; 3,000 – 6,000 words for commentaries and case notes; and 800 – 1,500 words for book reviews. Exceptionally, shorter or longer works may be considered at the Editors' discretion.

For further information, visit <http://www.journals.cambridge.org/TEL>

Books for review (and proposals for reviews) should be sent to Thijs Etty, at the address above.
