Politics and Society in Contemporary China
Elizabeth Freund Larus
Lynne Rienner Publishers

From the publisher:

This authoritative text captures the dynamism of Chinese politics and society. It begins with a broad sweep of China's modern history—from the imperial era to the present—providing essential context for understanding the current political environment. It then makes sense of the dramatic political, social, and economic changes that have occurred across some six decades.

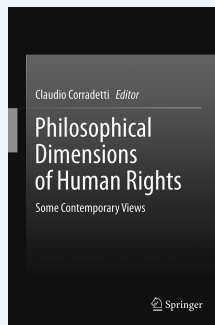

Elizabeth Freund Larus is professor of political science and international affairs at the University of Mary Washington. She is author of Economic Reform in China, 1979-2003: The Marketization of Labor and State Enterprises. ISBN 978-1-58826-800-6; 978-1-58826-825-9.

Philosophical Perspectives on Human Rights. Some Contemporary Views
Claudio Corradetti, Editor
Springer

From the publisher:

This book presents a unique collection of the most relevant perspectives in contemporary human rights philosophy. Different intellectual traditions are brought together to explore some of the core postmodern issues challenging standard justifications. Widely accessible also to non experts, contributions aim at opening new perspectives on the state of the art of the philosophy of human rights. This makes this book particularly suitable to human rights experts as well as master and doctoral students. Claudio Corradetti is a senior researcher at the European Academy in Bolzano Italy.
