

Bulletin of the Institute of Historical Research

Edited by A. G. DICKENS

CONTENTS :

Articles

- | | |
|---|----------------------|
| The departure of Tatikius from the crusader army | J. France |
| Isabella de Vesey and the custody of Bamburgh Castle | M. Prestwich |
| John Stratford, bishop of Winchester, and the Crown, 1323-30 | Natalie M. Fryde |
| The search for universal peace: the conferences at Calais and Bruges in 1521 | Joycelyne G. Russell |
| Disputed inheritances: some difficulties of the nobility in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries | B. Coward |
| The 'plot' to depose Charles I in 1644 | L. Kaplan |
| Francis Bampfield (1615-1684): eccentric Hebraist and humanitarian | R. L. Greaves |
| The authorship of Four Letters to a Friend in North Britain and other pamphlets attributed to Robert Walpole | J. P. W. Rogers |
| William Pitt's resignation in 1801: re-examination and document | R. E. Willis |
| Lord Dudley Stuart and the Hungarian refugees of 1849 | T. G. Kabdebo |
| Recollections of the Institute, 1922-43 | C. G. Parsloe |
| Twenty-five years at the Institute, 1946-71 | A. T. Milne |
| Bibliographical aids to research. XXII.—Parliamentary diaries of the early Stuart period | R. C. Johnson |

Notes and Documents

- | | |
|--|----------------|
| A note on confraternities in the Latin kingdom of Jerusalem | J. Riley-Smith |
| Alchemy in the reign of Edward VI: an episode in the careers of Richard Whalley and Richard Eden | C. J. Kitching |
| The appointment of the 1905 Poor Law Commission—a rejoinder | K. D. Brown |
| The Poor Law Commission and the 1905 Unemployed Workmen Act | John Brown |

Historical News, Migrations of Historical Manuscripts

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON:
INSTITUTE OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH
Senate House, London, WC1E 7HU

English Money and Irish Land

The 'Adventurers' in the Cromwellian Settlement of Ireland

Karl S. Bottigheimer

This book explores the origins of the crucial Cromwellian Settlement of the 1650s, the germ of which was a scheme of 1642 allowing English 'adventurers' to subscribe funds for suppression of the Irish rebellion then raging, in the expectation of repayment in confiscated land. A computer has made it possible to examine the role of those directly involved in the adventure (almost 2,000), and to explore the social and economic forces which caused the most consequential land settlement of Anglo-Irish history. 1 map £3.25 forthcoming

A View of the Present State of Ireland

Edmund Spenser

Edited by W. L. Renwick

Spenser made his name as a poet, but his living as an official in the royal service in Ireland. The View, compiled on his second visit to England in 1596, and useful as a statement of official opinion, tells us much about the poet and his interests and experiences. 2 plates £2.50

The Government and Politics of Ireland

Basil Chubb

with an historical introduction by David Thornley

This first comprehensive work on Irish government and politics in thirty-five years attempts to go beyond a formal legal-institutional approach and outline the political sociology of Ireland. It characterizes the country's political culture and describes its major political institutions, presents up-to-date information on elections, political participation, interest group activity, the mass media, and the socio-economic status of politicians and the politically active. £3.50
Stanford University Press

The Tain

Translated from the Irish by Thomas Kinsella, with brush drawings by Louis Le Brocquy

Thomas Kinsella's translation of the Irish prose epic Táin Bó Cuailnge, the story of the hero Cúchulainn's single-handed resistance to the armies invading Ulster, has been praised by The Times Literary Supplement for its splendid and exciting language. Previously available only in a limited edition, The Tain is now being issued simultaneously in boards and in Oxford Paperbacks, in a new edition published in association with the Dolmen Press. £3.15 paper covers £1.10

Oxford University Press

PRINTED IN IRELAND BY DUBLIN UNIVERSITY PRESS LTD