LAW & SOCIETY

Review

Policy

The Law & Society Review is a peer-reviewed publication for work bearing on the relationship between society and the legal process, including articles or notes of interest to the research community in general, new theoretical developments, results of empirical studies, and comments on the field or its methods of inquiry. The Review is broadly interdisciplinary and welcomes work from any tradition of scholarship concerned with the cultural, economic, political, psychological, or social aspects of law and legal systems.

Manuscript Submission

What to submit: Five copies of the manuscript and an abstract of about 100 words, together with a brief biographical description of the author(s). Manuscripts submitted to the Review must not be under consideration by another publication. Manuscripts cannot be returned to authors.

Manuscript format: Delete all identifying references from four of the five copies of your manuscript. Text, including footnotes and references, should be double spaced with 1-inch margins. Footnotes, references, tables, and figures should be placed at the end. An abridged style sheet is published regularly in the Review, a full style sheet is available on request.
