

SIMON'S ROCK COLLEGE OF BARD

offers

Fall semester or academic year in

İSTANBUL, TURKEY

for juniors and seniors at

BOĞAZIÇI UNIVERSITY

Instruction is in English in the humanities and social sciences

Sampling of courses include

Folk Literature ■ Genres in Turkish Literature ■ Novel and Short Story in Modern Turkish Literature ■
History of Ancient Trade ■ European and Islamic History and Civilization ■ History of Turco-Islamic Thought ■ Family and Kinship Systems ■ Middle East in World Politics ■
Ottoman Economic and Social Structure ■ Politics in Developing Countries ■ Issues of Conflict in the Middle East

Early September to mid-January or

Early September to late May

Financial aid available

For detailed information please contact:

Prof. Ahmet Tonak or

U Ba Win

Simon's Rock College of Bard

Great Barrington, MA 01230-9702

Telephone (413) 528-0771 ■ Fax (413) 528-7365

NOTICE

Charalambos Tsardanidis, Bibliography for Turkey, 1923-1990, Athens: Foundation for Mediterranean Studies, 1990, 424 pp.

This is a useful collection of over 6000 entries on modern Turkey. It was compiled at the Foundation for Mediterranean Studies in Athens, Greece. The bibliography is in English and is the product of a comprehensive search of titles published in the United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, and Italy. Information about this and other publications of the Foundation for Mediterranean Studies can be obtained from the following address:

Foundation for Mediterranean Studies
2 Lycabettus Street
Athens 106 71
Greece