

nal, 54; in commission on cases of necromancy, 58; dies, 63

Winchester, William of Waynfleet, baptizes prince of Wales, 70

Windsor, Henry IV. warned of conspiracy at, 20

Wintershill, Thomas, beheaded, 21

Woodstock, 7, 125

— Thomas of. See Gloucester, duke of

Worcester cathedral, meeting of Yorkists there, 81

— earl of, sir Thomas Percy created, 12; steward of the king's house, 15; dismisses the household, 16, 165; battle of Shrewsbury, 27, 28; beheaded, 29

Wyche, Richard, an Essex vicar, burnt, 56, 189

York, 29, 32, 140, 179

— archbp. of, Alexander Neville, flies the country, 5, 124; exiled by parliament, 6

— Richard Scrope, brother of earl of Wilts. assists at inthroning Henry IV. 18; king's suspicion of, 178; his insurrection—agitating sermon at York—articles, 31, 139; sends copies to the curates of his diocese, 31, 32; taken prisoner by stratagem—archbp. Arundel intercedes for him, 32, 140; executed, 33, 140, 179; pope's excommunication—defence of the king, &c. 33, 34, 140, 179

— John Kempe, made cardinal, 57; judge in case of Eleanor Cobham, &c. 58

York, duke of, Edmund of Langley, earl of Cambridge (q. v.), created, 4, 145; lieut. of England—holds parl. at Westminster, 111; lieut. of England, 14; at first endeavours to oppose Henry of Bolingbroke, 15; but agrees to support him at Berkeley, 164; discloses the Kingston conspiracy, 168, 169

— Edward Plantagenet, son of last, earl of Rutland (q. v.), 34, 37 (but see p. 181), 40; leads van at Agyncourt, 41; killed there, 42

— Richard, son of Ric. earl of Cambridge and nephew of last, in arms against Henry VI. 69, 70; battle of St. Alban's, 71; obtains possession of king's person and returns to London, 72; temporary reconciliation of York. and Lancast. 77, 78; at Ludlow, letter to the king, 80, 83; crosses to Ireland, 83; attainted in parl. 14; articles sent to the Commons, &c. 86; lodges in king's palace—violent conduct in occupying king's bedroom, 99; asserts in parl. his title to the throne, 99—106; declared by parl. prince of Wales, &c.—made protector—goes to Sandal castle, &c.—Commission to lord Neville, 106; killed at battle of Wakefield, 107, 109, 200

— duchess of, Cecily, daughter of Ralph Neville, earl of Westmerland, robbed and ill-treated by Lancastrians, 83

ERRATA.

- Page 21, line 19, for "and vnto Plasshe," read "and led vnto Plasshe."
- ,, 70, line 16, after "saide erle," place the semicolon from preceding line.
- ,, 124, line 12, for "Radcolbrigge," read "Radcotbrigge."
- ,, 134, line 10, for "sanctum Paulum," read "ad sanctum Paulum."
- ,, 136, line 6, for "suspendaris," read "suspenderis."
- ,, ,, last line, for "acensavit," read "accusavit."
- ,, 141, line 3, for "xx^{am}," read "x^{am}."