

Acknowledgements

We thank the authors for contributing to this book – your insights and determination make a change in this world, and it is great to have you as colleagues in the field. We are also grateful to Charis Chiu and Arundhati Suma Ajith for research assistance in editing the collection.

We are grateful to the Australian Research Council for funding received from the Centre of Excellence for Automated Decision-Making and Society (project number CE200100005) and a Discovery Early Career Research Award (‘Artificial Intelligence Decision-Making, Privacy and Discrimination Laws’, project number DE210101183). We would also like to thank the Santander Financial Institute, Fundación UCEIF (Spain) for the research prize awarded to Dr Zofia Bednarz.
