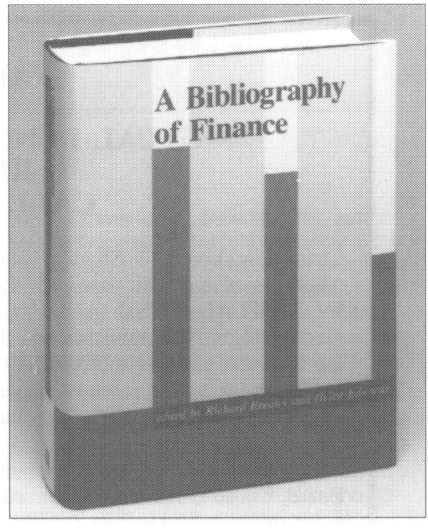
A BIBLIOGRAPHY OF FINANCE

edited by Richard Brealey and Helen Edwards, London Business School

A comprehensive and current guide to the entire field of finance.



With more than 12,000 entries representing approximately 120 periodicals, this bibliography provides instant access to virtually every important work in the field of finance. While accounting, law, and monetary economics are covered to some extent, the core of the bibliography is articles written by financial economists and published in finance journals. Also included are works that are often referred to by finance authors such as Keynes's General Theory and articles on information asymmetry, signaling equilibria, statistics, and econometrics.

Includes

- Works that focus on issues of lasting importance and that are analytical as well as descriptive.
- Essentially all of the articles in such major finance journals as the Journal of Finance and Journal of Financial Economics.
- Entries that range from Bernoulli's famous paper of 1730 to works published at the end of 1989 with the majority of publications published in the last decade.

Features

- 12,728 entries — each entry includes author(s) title, source, publication date, issue, and exact page.
- Author listing — complete, alphabetical, and cross-referenced.
- 373 subjects — organized around 40 main areas for easy guidance, articles within each subject are listed by year of publication, then by author.
- 120 periodicals — every major finance journal is fully represented.
- 328 keywords — for each, the reader is helpfully directed to the primary subject heading where articles are likely to be found in the bibliography.

JFQA Style Requirements

Manuscripts must be submitted in quadruplicate with a cover page showing title, author name(s) and affiliation(s), and work phone number(s). The first page of text should begin with the title only. A short one-paragraph abstract of no more than 100 words must be included. Manuscripts must be typed double-spaced on one side of the page. Underline only words or phrases that are to be italicized; do not underline headings or subheadings, or use boldface type. All sections of the paper, beginning with the introduction and ending with a conclusion or summary, must be numbered with Roman numerals. Subsection headings must be lettered A, B, C, etc.

The manuscript should explain its relation to other research in the field, especially recently published material. References cited in the text should be noted by the last name(s) of the author(s) followed by the publication year enclosed in parentheses without punctuation: Smith (1988). When a particular page, section, or equation is referred to, the reference also should be placed within parentheses: (Smith and Jones (1988), p. 222), (Green (1988a), eq. 3).

Lengthy mathematical proofs and extensive tables should be placed in an appendix or omitted from the manuscript entirely. In the latter case, the author may indicate in a footnote that proofs or tables are available on request. The author should make every effort to explain the meaning of mathematical proofs.

The author should check the manuscript for clarity, grammar, spelling, and punctuation in order to minimize the number of editorial changes and the necessity of expensive corrections at the proof stage. All abbreviations must be defined.

Equations. All but very short mathematical expressions should be displayed on a separate line and centered. Important displayed equations must be identified by consecutive Arabic numerals in parentheses on the left. Expressions should be aligned and subscripts and superscripts clearly marked to avoid confusion. Please differentiate between the letter l (ell), the numeral 1 (one), the letter o (oh), and the numeral 0 (zero) with marginal notes.

Tables. Each table must be titled and numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals. Please check the text to make sure there is a reference to each table. Type each table on a separate page and indicate by marginal notations its approximate placement in the text. General footnotes should be marked as "Notes:" and a, b, c, etc., marked for specific footnotes. Asterisks * or  indicate significance at the 5- and 1-percent levels, respectively. If tables are typed on oversized paper, please submit the oversized paper in lieu of poorly reproduced reductions. The author should check tables to be sure that totals are correct and that the title, column headings, footnotes, etc., clearly explain the content of the table.

Figures. Figures must be titled and numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals. Captions should present sufficient information to describe the purpose of the figure. Figures for accepted manuscripts must be of professional quality, ready for reproduction, executed on white paper in black ink, with clear, medium-weight black lines. All lettering on figures must be rendered by an artist in pen and ink, by means of dry transfer letters, or by applying typeset material to prepared artwork. Typewritten lettering will not be accepted. Figures generated by laser printer are acceptable.

Footnotes. Footnotes must be typed double-spaced and placed on separate sheets at the end of the manuscript. Footnotes must not be used for the purpose of citation. Footnotes with extensive content should be avoided.

References. All works cited in the text must be alphabetically arranged in a double-spaced list at the end of the manuscript. Examples:

Brown, S., and J. Warner. "Using Daily Stock Returns: The Case of Event Studies." Journal of Financial Economics, 14 (March 1985), 1-31.

Ross, S. A. "Return Risk and Arbitrage." In Risk and Return in Finance, Vol. I, I. Friend and J. L. Bicksler, eds. Cambridge, MA: Ballinger (1977).
