AFRICAN DISSERTATION INTERNSHIP AWARDS

Doctoral students from sub-Saharan Africa are invited to apply to the Rockefeller Foundation for dissertation research support. The program enables Ph.D. students enrolled in U.S. and Canadian universities to return to Africa for extensive research involving field observation or the use of primary sources available only in Africa. Priority is given to research topics in the fields of agriculture, environment, health, life sciences, population, and schooling.

Applicants are responsible for arranging affiliation with an African institution able to provide needed research support, such as laboratory facilities, access to study sites, and technical advice. The candidate's faculty advisors, the host institution in Africa, and the agency with primary responsibility for financing the student's graduate work must all send letters of endorsement. The maximum award is $20,000. Deadlines for applications are October 1, 1995 and March 1, 1996.

Upon completion of their doctoral degrees, alumni of the ADIA program who return to Africa are invited to apply for Rockefeller Foundation African Science-Based Development Career Awards. Information on these awards is mailed with application materials for the ADIA Program.

PLATFORM FOR REGIONAL DIALOGUE

TRAITS D'UNION RWANDA 5

SPECIAL ISSUE

AFRICAN POINTS OF VIEW ON THE RECONSTRUCTION OF RWANDA

Rwandan Reconstruction

Three NGOs, Coopibo, Vredeseilanden, and SOS-Faim wish to contribute to the process of political and social reconstruction of Rwanda by giving voice to various sections of Rwandan society and to persons from neighboring countries. Such opinions are of undeniable importance to the development of lasting solutions to the country's problems.

A special issue (No. 5) of the magazine Traits d' Union Rwanda juxtaposes the opinions of various politicians, military commanders, and civil leaders with one another. Thanks to a compilation of some 20 exclusive interviews, the reader gains a unique insight into the political and social panorama that now defines Rwanda and the entire region. The magazine has 64 pages, is published in four languages (Kinyarwanda, French, Dutch, and English), and calls on all Rwandan political and social forces to look for political solutions. The international community is also called upon to broaden its efforts beyond humanitarian aid only. To obtain the English version, send a check or money order for $10 to ASA, Credit Union Building, Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322.
