

SUCCESS THROUGH BUSINESS EDUCATION

LLM OPPORTUNITIES at MIDDLESEX UNIVERSITY BUSINESS SCHOOL CENTRE FOR LEGAL RESEARCH, LONDON • LLM Programme

This is a flexible, student-centred, and distinctive LLM programme designed to cater for both UK/EU and international students. The primary aim of this programme is to provide students who wish to develop their interests in specialised areas of law and enhance their marketability with a quality legal education in a vibrant, interdisciplinary and cosmopolitan environment.

Students can either opt for an assortment of courses available to obtain the general LLM or follow a designated pathway to be eligible for either an LLM in International Economic Law or an LLM in International Business Law. Courses on offer at present include, International Law of Trade, International Commercial Transactions, International Economic Law, Competition Law, International Commercial Arbitration, Human Rights Law, Environmental Law and various Employment Law related subjects. There is a strong research element incorporated into the programme.

The Programme Leader is Professor Surya P Subedi who is Director of the Centre for Legal Research within the University. He has taught international law in The Hague, New York and Sweden.

The Centre also offers the following programmes:

LLM Employment Law • MA Legal Studies

PG Diploma in Law/CPE

There are also opportunities for research in International Economic Law, International Business Law and Employment Law, leading to an MPhil or a PhD degree in Law.

Human Rights and Disability: The Current Use and Future Potential of United Nations Human Rights Instruments in the Context of Disability

The world has seen a shift in perspective over the past two decades, from viewing people with disabilities as problems, towards viewing them as holders of rights. The study analyzes this development in three parts. The first part covers the nature of the shift to the human rights framework in the context of disability. The second part is an evaluation of the current use of the United Nations human rights instruments, providing a detailed analysis of the actual and potential relevance of each of the human rights treaties in the context of disability. The final part outlines options for the future.

Implementation Handbook for the Convention on the Rights of the Child

This Handbook is a practical tool for all those involved in implementing the principles and provisions of the Convention and realizing the human rights of children. Under each article of the Convention, the Handbook records and analyzes the interpretation by the Committee on the Rights of the Child, the internationally elected body of independent experts established to monitor progress worldwide. It includes the two Optional Protocols to the Convention, and their guidelines for reporting, as well as other new international instruments aimed at promotion and protection of children's rights.

Trafficking in Women and Prostitution in the Baltic States: Social and Legal Aspects

Trafficking in human beings has become a serious global concern. This report provides a summary of current international instruments that relate to trafficking and deal with the particular problems of trafficking in the Baltic States - Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. In addition to drawing from national data about the Baltic States, the report also selectively considers the law and practice of some EU member states. The publication looks at the treatment of trafficking victims and covers preventive measures.
