All communications, whether editorial or business, including copy for advertisements, notices of change of address, requests, and complaints, should be addressed to The Renaissance Society at the above address. Back numbers are available, Volumes I and II only on microfilm. Second-class mailing privileges authorized at New York, N. Y.

Renaissance News, published quarterly in November, January, March, and May, is distributed only to members of the Society. Studies in the Renaissance is published annually and distributed in the same way.

Membership is open to anyone who is interested in Renaissance studies. Dues are $6 for regular members, $10 for sustaining members, $25 for patron members, and $100 for benefactor members. Send your check, made payable to The Renaissance Society of America, Inc., and your name and mailing address. Academic members are asked to give title, department, and institution as these should appear in the directory.

The Renaissance Society of America was organized on January 30, 1954, at Columbia University and was incorporated as a nonprofit society under the laws of the State of New York on April 30, 1954. Its purpose is the advancement of learning in the field of Renaissance studies, and especially the promotion of interchange among the various fields of specialization, such as the visual arts, music, Latin and the modern literatures, classical scholarship, the sciences, law, philosophy, religion, theology, political, economic and social history, and any other field of learning which may deepen or broaden understanding of the Renaissance period.
