Religious Studies

An international journal for the philosophy of religion

Editorial policy

Religious Studies is an international journal devoted to the problems of the philosophy of religion as these arise out of classical and contemporary discussions and from varied religious traditions. Space is devoted to articles, of which more than 25 are published each year, but the journal also contains a book review section, which may include review articles and shorter notes as well as normal-length reviews.

1. Submissions

All contributions must be submitted via the electronic submission system at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/rst>

For further details, please visit the journal's website: cambridge.org/res

No article will be accepted for publication without blind review. The text of submitted articles must be ready for this and must bear no trace of the author's identity. Articles that are not ready for blind review will be rejected. Discussion notes should be replies to papers published in Religious Studies.

Submission of a paper will be taken to imply that it is unpublished and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author will be asked to assign copyright (on certain conditions) to Cambridge University Press.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not hold copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Books for review should be sent to Dr Tasia Scrutton and Dr Simon Hewitt, School of Philosophy, Religion and the History of Science, University of Leeds, Leeds LS2 8JT.

Books not selected for review will not be returned.

NB: Religious Studies does not accept unsolicited book reviews.

2. Manuscript preparation

Articles must be submitted as Word files to the journal and should not be more than 8,000 words long. Articles in two or more parts may occasionally be accepted provided each part is independently intelligible. They should be in English.

Each article must be submitted with an abstract of 100 words.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author must prepare their manuscript according to the journal style guide which can be found at www.journals.cambridge.org/res. Articles and book reviews will be checked and copy-edited for journal style and UK English.

The manuscript must be supplied in electronic format as Microsoft Word accompanied by a pdf of the same file.

3. Proofs

First proofs are sent to contributors by e-mail as PDF files. Corrections will only be accepted if they are returned within the specified time.

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

4. Offprints

Each Author will receive access to the final version once published online.
