

bfi

*A Major
New Series*

FILM CLASSICS

*Books to Honor the Great
Films of World Cinema*

The National Film Archive of the British Film Institute has compiled a list of 360 key films from the vast treasure of world cinema. BFI Film Classics honor these films. A wide spectrum of authors, including novelists, film critics, and scholars—all of whom share a passion for cinema—have chosen films from the archive's list. Drawing on contemporary film scholarship, each book presents a personal commentary on a single film, together with a brief production history and a detailed filmography, notes, and bibliography. Beautifully illustrated and immensely readable, these volumes pay homage to great films.

The Wizard of Oz

Salman Rushdie

"The Wizard of Oz was my first literary influence," writes Salman Rushdie in his account of this celebrated MGM classic. The book not only presents the insights of a fine writer on a great film, it also offers a new short story by Rushdie. 30 b&w stills, paper $9.95

Double Indemnity

Richard Schickel

Time magazine's film critic describes this sexy, dark thriller's battle with the censors, its rejection by the Academy on Oscar night, and its role in defining film noir. Schickel interviewed director Billy Wilder especially for this book. 30 b&w stills, paper $9.95

Stagecoach

Edward Buscombe

A fresh look at the John Ford classic—the most famous Western of them all, and the film that made John Wayne a star—by the editor of The BFI Companion to the Western. 30 b&w stills, paper $9.95

Went the Day Well?

Penelope Houston

Based on a story by Graham Greene, this film was an extremely effective wartime thriller. However, its real puzzles and enigmas lie in the story behind the scenes, presented by the former editor of Sight and Sound. 30 b&w stills, paper $9.95

More new titles on the visual arts:

High Anxiety

Catastrophe, Scandal, Age, and Comedy

Patricia Mellencamp

Written with wit and flair, High Anxiety is a critique of the temporality of U.S. television. Operation Desert Storm, I Love Lucy, Anita Hill, Twin Peaks, and Oprah are a few of the subjects which form this "anxious" mosaic of popular culture.

Arts and Politics of the Everyday

18 b&w photos, cloth $39.95 paper $18.95

Reframing Japanese Cinema

Authorship, Genre, History

Edited by Arthur Nolletti, Jr. and David Desser

Covering the spectrum of Japanese film, the book is divided into three sections, "authorship," "genre," and "history," which explore this rich tradition from Kurosawa to katsuben (live narrators of silent films).

Available November, 57 b&w photos, cloth $39.95 paper $18.95

Missing, Believed Lost

The Great British Film Search

Edited by Allen Eyles and David Meeker

Foreword by J. Paul Getty

The fascinating and richly illustrated record of the British National Film Archive's search for films of which no prints could be found, including Hitchcock's The Mountain Eagle and Errol Flynn's first film in Britain.

Distributed for the British Film Institute

Available January, 60 b&w photos, paper $31.95

Screening Europe

Working Papers Volume 1

Edited by Duncan Petrie

Leading academics, including Fredric Jameson and Stuart Hall, and European filmmakers, from Jean-Luc Godard to Isaac Julien, focus on the question of how European films are shaping, and being shaped by, the dramatic changes of today.

Distributed for the British Film Institute

30 b&w photos, paper $16.95

At bookstores or from

INDIANA
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Dept. A2R7
Bloomington, IN 47404
Orders: 1-800-842-6796

The Collected Poems of Weldon Kees

Revised Edition

Edited by Donald Justice

"Kees was both a gifted lyric poet and a restless experimenter, whose diverse background as an abstract expressionist painter, a jazz pianist and composer, and a filmmaker enriched his sense of formal possibilities." — Poetry Magazine. $9.95 pa

Winged Words

American Indian
Writers Speak

Laura Coltelli

"An excellent introduction to the creative genius of contemporary Native American artists. . . . [It] makes for fine reading on several levels: biography, history, literature, and mythology." — Library Journal. $9.95 pa, $25.00 cl

Autobiographi- cal Tightropes

Simone de Beauvoir,
Nathalie Sarraute,
Marguerite Duras,
Monique Wittig, and
Maryse Condé

Leah D. Hewitt

"Hewitt's main thesis, which she persuasively and lucidly defends, is that each of these women reveals in her autobiographical writings the need for a fictional self." — Booklist. $12.95 pa, $27.50 d

photograph of Weldon Kees courtesy of the Heritage Room, Bennett Martin Public Library, Lincoln, Nebraska

At bookstores or from University of Nebraska Press · 901 N 17 · Lincoln 68588-0520 · (800) 755-1105 · publishers since 1941