

from Cambridge

The First Afghan War 1838-1842

J. A. NORRIS

Believing that Sir John William Kaye, the Victorian authority on this war, made some strong partisan judgments which still have not been challenged, J. A. Norris has reexamined the original sources including some that were not available to Kaye.

This study attempts to assess the political significance of the Afghan incident, relating it to the Eastern question, and at the same time to vindicate the actions of Lord Auckland and Alexander Burnes. The author demonstrates that Auckland's policy was part of the general Whig plan, operated by Palmerston, for the containment of Russian expansion in Asia.

$15.00

Dialectic in Practical Religion

Edited by E. R. LEACH

Five detailed anthropological studies examining the dialectic interplay between the concepts of practical and philosophical religion. Three of the studies are of relatively civilized Buddhist villages in Ceylon and Thailand: Theodicy, Sin and Salvation in a Sociology of Buddhism by Gananath Obeyesekere; The Ideology of Merit and the Social Correlates of Buddhism in a Thai Village by S. J. Tambiah; and 'The House of the Mighty Hero' or 'The House of Enough Paddy'? Some Implications of a Sinhalese Myth by Marguerite S. Robinson. The other studies are of more primitive people in Africa.

(Cambridge Papers in Social Anthropology No. 5)

$7.00

from Cambridge

The Swatantra Party and Indian Conservatism

HOWARD L. ERDMAN

Dr Erdman, Assistant Professor of Government, Dartmouth College, examines the background, emergence and growth of Swatantra within the framework of conservative politics in India.

He surveys the doctrines, social bases and political organization of the right-wing parties before 1959, then describes the founding of the Swatantra coalition. He examines in detail the internal structure, ideology, leadership and electoral performance of the party, and its relationship with the other major opposition parties in India. The results of the 1967 elections are discussed in an appendix.

(Cambridge South Asian Studies No. 5)

$9.50

The Emergence of Indian Nationalism

ANIL SEAL

This is the first of five volumes to be published in a series, Political Change in Modern South Asia, prepared by J. A. Gallagher of Oxford and Anil Seal of Cambridge. The purpose of the series is to analyse the interplay between imperialism and nationalism in what were to become the two states of India and Pakistan.

In The Emergence of Indian Nationalism Dr Seal studies the social roots of the stirrings toward political organization in the 1870's and 1880's which brought about the foundation of the Indian National Congress.

$11.50

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

32 East 57th Street, New York, N. Y. 10022

Of special interest from the University of Chicago Press

Folk Religion in Japan

Continuity and Change

Ichiro Hori

Edited by

Joseph M. Kitagawa and Alan L. Miller

This is the first book to appear in Western literature which portrays the manner in which Shinto, Buddhist, Confucian, and Taoist elements, as well as primitive magical beliefs and practices, have been fused into Japanese "folk religion." Hori discusses the Japanese social structure, Nembutsu, the custom of reciting Buddha Amida, the significance of sacred mountains, and the shamanistic tendencies in the "new religions." Based on the 1965 Haskell Lectures on Comparative Religions delivered by the author at The University of Chicago.

1968 LC:67-30128 278 pages, $7.00

China's Gentry

Essays on Rural-Urban Relations

Hsiao-tung Fei

Revised and edited by Margaret Park Redfield

Introduction by Robert Redfield

These seven essays on the structure of Chinese society are based on articles contributed by Fei to Chinese newspapers in 1947 and 1948. Appended are six case histories from a study of the gentry by Yung-teh Chow. ". . . Fei's essays cannot be ignored by any serious student of the Chinese gentry . . . The life-histories are not the less important . . . here the gentry as persons come to life as scholars, military men, bureaucrats, merchants, gangsters, and reformers."—Francis L. K. Hsu, American Journal of Sociology.

1968 290 pages, Paper $2.45

Party Building in a New Nation

*The Indian
National Congress*

Myron Weiner

This extensive study of the Congress party explores the conditions necessary for a modern political party to develop in an underdeveloped country. The author portrays the texture of Indian local politics in studies of five districts, and then relates local politics to India's national political development. He explains why, when predictions of doom and disintegration for India and the party seem plausible, the worst never happens. The book is a landmark in studies of contemporary India and the politics of developing nations.

1967 LC:67-12150 509 pages, maps, $12.50

Indians in Uganda

A Study of Caste and Sect in a Plural Society

H. S. Morris

Working in the tradition of British social anthropology, Morris analyzes a kind of social organization highly typical of modern emerging nations and one of their most pressing problems. Morris' ethnography is unusual because it analyzes all the Indians of Uganda using a comparative approach instead of studying only one group intensively. Morris' discussion of the revival of caste in a new setting is particularly interesting for the information it provides on the nature of caste itself.

1968 LC:68-16709 240 pages, $8.00

Rites of Modernization

*Symbolic and Social
Aspects of Indonesian
Proletarian Drama*

James L. Peacock

In this book, Peacock analyzes ludruk, the proletarian drama form in Surabaya, East Java, Indonesia. He contends that ludruk is aiding the modernization process in Surabaya by serving as an expression of the conflicts and doubts of the proletariat as they strive for new social positions. The genre of the plays, their stock characters and plot types are discussed in this intriguing approach to symbolic action in drama. First volume in the new series, Symbolic Anthropology, edited by David W. Crabb. Foreword by Dell Hymes.

1968 LC:68-15931 336 pages, $11.00

The Modernity of Tradition

Political Development in India

Lloyd I. Rudolph
and Susanne Hoerber Rudolph

In this firsthand study of modern India, the Rudolfs explore tradition's vast potential for change and its relationship to an industrializing national society. They show that the introduction of political democracy has mobilized and transformed castes in much the same way that modern American politics draws support from ethnic and religious communities in the U.S.A. A study of Gandhi reveals how he harnessed the traditional Hindu values of asceticism, non-violence, and compliance to the needs of a modern mass movement.

1967 LC:67-25527 306 pages, $8.75

China in the Eyes of Europe:

The Sixteenth Century

India in the Eyes of Europe:

The Sixteenth Century

Japan in the Eyes of Europe:

The Sixteenth Century

Southeast Asia in the Eyes of Europe:

The Sixteenth Century

Donald F. Lach

"No scholar before Donald F. Lach has attempted to survey the intricate web of relationships between Europe and Asia at such a level of detail. His book is a masterpiece of comprehensive scholarship," J. H. Plumb wrote in The New York Times Book Review on the publication of The Century of Discovery, the first volume of Asia in the Making of Europe, in 1965. Geoffrey Barraclough, in The New York Review of Books said: "nothing of this scope and magnitude has been performed before, and nothing is likely to be performed again." Unabridged chapters from Part Three of this major work are now available in paperback.

Lach portrays the growth of the spice trade, the invention of printing, and the spread of Jesuit missions during the sixteenth century, and discusses the gradual changes in the legendary character of Asia in European minds. By 1600 there was a body of knowledge derived from the writings of merchant travelers and missionaries and from the printed maps of cartographers. Details of what the literate European could have known, by 1600, about each individual area comprise the chapters now available as paperbacks, with new prefaces by the author.

"China" & "Japan", each $1.45

"India" & "Southeast Asia", each $1.95

University of Chicago Press, Chicago 60637

Soundings in Modern South Asian History

Edited by D. A. Low

The essays comprising this book are recent exercises in the history of one or another Indian region before 1937, but they also demonstrate that alongside the regional variations are problems of all-India significance that the scholar can study concurrently. Attention throughout centers on such issues as the characteristics of social structure and of social change, the spread of "rationality," the role of values in society, problems of identity and of authority, and the uncertainties that have confronted prominent political personages in the last century. $9.00

Korea and the Politics of Imperialism

C. I. Eugene Kim and Han-Kyo Kim

This analysis of the factors underlying the downfall of Korea in the early years of this century and the subsequent annexation by Japan is original and notable in its use of source materials and its concern with details that other historians have passed over. The authors draw extensively on sources—Korean, Japanese, Chinese and Western—to which other writers have lacked ready access. A publication of the Center for Japanese and Korean Studies. $7.00

Agricultural Change and Peasant Choice in a Thai Village

Michael Moerman

Mr. Moerman applies some of the suggestions of ethnoscience to a major Thai institution, rice farming. His book offers probably the most detailed anthropological account of Asian wet-rice farming available in English, and the first book-length study of the Tai-Lue to appear in a European language. $6.00

Studies in Indian Agriculture

The Art of the Possible

Gilbert Etienne. Translated by Megan Mothersole

From his experiences in South Asia, Mr. Etienne has distilled conclusions concerning the likely future of an important sector of Indian agriculture. "A transparently authentic work, possessing objectivity, astuteness of observation, and outstanding common sense."—B. H. Farmer, Director, Center of South Asian Studies, Cambridge University. $7.95

Indian Foreign Policy in Cambodia, Laos, and Vietnam, 1947-1964

D. R. SarDesai

This analysis of India's attitude toward the states of former French Indochina, an area of crucial interest, provides us with important insights into Nehru's policy toward neutralized Laos, non-aligned Cambodia, West-allied South Vietnam, and Communist-allied North Vietnam. JUNE $10.00

from California

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS • Berkeley 94720

Provocative research on the Indian slum and the Delhi Pilot Project in urban community development . . .

SLUMS AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Experiments in Self-Help

By Marshall B. Clinard, University of Wisconsin

“. . . Professor Clinard is to be praised for the way he has dealt with the case study. The descriptive, organizational, methodological, and evaluative facets of the Delhi Project are well documented . . . helpful and suggestive.”

—Urban Affairs Quarterly

“. . . offers to those concerned with slum problems a program of planned social change that has been developed and tested in some of the world's worst slums over a period of several years. . . The heart of the book analyzes the problems and process of developing and applying the principles of community development to the slums of Delhi, India.”

—Social Forces

“. . . contains three related topics, a comparative account of the sociology of the urban slum, a critique of the methods that have been used to try to eliminate the slum, and a detailed case history of a community development project in the slums of Delhi . . . an important contribution to the literature on socio-economic change.”

—American Anthropologist

Contents: The Slum. The Nature of the Slum. Historical Perspectives on the Slum. Types of Slums and Slum Dwellers. The Indian Slum. Approaches to the Slum Problem. Slum Clearance, Welfare Services, and Economic Opportunity. Urban Community Development. Urban Community Development and the Indian Slum. The Delhi Pilot Project in Urban Community Development. Organizing Slum Areas. Use of Traditional Groups. Self-Help Activities. The Evaluation of Social Change. Social Change and the Slum. The Process of Social Change in Slum Areas. Self-Help and the Slum. Index.

1966

384 pages

$7.95

THE FREE PRESS

A Division of The Macmillan Company

866 Third Avenue, New York, N. Y., 10022

COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA

THE JAPANESE IMPERIAL INSTITUTION IN THE TOKUGAWA PERIOD

Herschel Webb

The Japanese monarchy survived a thousand years of neglect and the atrophy of its political functions to emerge in the nineteenth century as a powerful instrument of state. This study examines the imperial institution during the Tokugawa period (1600-1868), its most obscure and feeblest phase, to illuminate the evolution of the Japanese monarchy and the intellectual attitudes toward it.

One of the "Studies of the East Asian Institute, Columbia University."

$8.50

BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY OF REPUBLICAN CHINA, VOLUMES I AND II

Howard L. Boorman, Editor

Richard C. Howard, Associate Editor

Over ten years in preparation, the BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY OF REPUBLICAN CHINA will provide a massive reference work, at once systematic and comprehensive, for all organizations, libraries, and individuals concerned with twentieth-century China. In addition to political and military leaders, the work includes detailed biographies-in-brief of individuals prominent in diplomacy, business and banking, literature, the arts, scholarship, social reform, education, the press and publishing, science, religion, aviation, medicine, and other fields.

These volumes are the first two of four that will furnish the most comprehensive and objective life stories in any language including Chinese of some 600 Chinese, many still living, of this century. Volume I contains 150 biographical articles on Chinese with surnames Ai through Ch'ü. Volume II, with 213 articles, covers Chinese with surnames Dalai through Ma.

"The first volume of the Biographical Dictionary more than lives up to expectations, in the number of persons included, in the admirable depth in which each is treated and . . . in its accuracy and dependability."—Edwin O. Reischauer

"The confusion of revolutionary China is penetrated, facts are nailed down, and historians everywhere will be immensely aided in the continuing effort to make sense out of modern China."—John K. Fairbank, American Historical Review

Volume I—$20.00

Volume II—April '68—$20.00

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

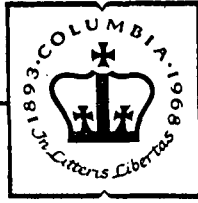

440 West 110th Street
New York, N. Y. 10025

COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF CHUANG TZU

Translated by Burton Watson

As one of the two great Taoist texts, the Chuang Tzu holds an important place in the history of Chinese philosophical thought. Its mystic and poetic quality has always appealed to minds troubled and perplexed by the human condition. This new, unabridged translation by Burton Watson is a scholarly version that preserves the brilliant wit, paradox, and poetic quality of the original. Twentieth-century readers will welcome a new English version of this two-thousand-year-old classic.

Number LXXX in the Records of Civilization and one of the Translations from the Oriental Classics. $10.00

THE CLASSIC CHINESE NOVEL: A CRITICAL INTRODUCTION

C. T. Hsia

Six major Chinese novels are the subject of this evaluative study. In turn, Professor Hsia takes up The Romance of the Three Kingdoms (San-kuo chih yen-i, 14th century); The Water Margin, or All Men Are Brothers (Shui hu chuan, 14th century); Journey to the West, or Monkey (Hsi-yu chi, 16th century); Chin Ping Mei (The Golden Lotus, 16th century); The Scholars (Ju-lin wai-shih, 18th century); and Dream of the Red Chamber (Hung-lou meng, 18th century). The book also contains an introduction by Professor Hsia, an extensive bibliography, and a glossary.

One of the Companions to Asian Studies. $9.50

THE ROMANCE OF THE WESTERN CHAMBER (HSI HSIANG CHI)

Translated by S. I. Hsiung

For nearly eight centuries in China the play Hsi Hsiang Chi has delighted generation after generation of playgoers and readers. In four parts and a continuation, the drama relates the wooing and winning of the beautiful Ts'ui Ying-ying by the young scholar Chang Chün-ju. The trio of major characters is completed by Hung Niang, the quick-witted maid who acts as a go-between for the lovers.

This edition, reissued for the Columbia College Program of Translations from the Oriental Classics, contains a critical introduction by C. T. Hsia, and is illustrated with Yü-Wên-su's sixteenth-century copies of the original drawings by Chien Ku (Su-pao) of Chang Chow.

cloth $10.00
paper $ 2.75

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

440 West 110th Street
New York, N. Y. 10025

COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA

REFERENCE WORKS

Dictionary Catalog of the Library of the FREER GALLERY of ART

Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C.

The library specializes in the arts of the Far East, India and the Near East. It also includes material relating to the Washington Biblical Manuscripts and the American painter Whistler and his contemporaries. The catalog is an author, subject, title catalog in one alphabet, divided into two sections: western language books and books in Chinese and Japanese.

Estimated 92,400 cards reproduced in 6 volumes

Price: $360.00

EAST ASIATIC LIBRARY

University of California, Berkeley

Author-Title Catalog and Subject Catalog

This collection includes Chinese, Korean, Japanese and other Far Eastern materials, broadened to extend support of interests beyond the humanities. Subjects range from language and literature to the natural sciences and technology, together with history, philosophy, the arts and the modern social sciences. The Author-Title Catalog is arranged in the order of characters in the index to Mathews' Chinese-English Dictionary, after which much shorter sections show entries in, respectively, kana, han'gul, and the Roman alphabet. The Subject Catalog, an alphabetical file, bears English headings based on the Library of Congress list.

Author-Title Catalog

Estimated 220,000 cards reproduced in 13 volumes

Price: $865.00

Subject Catalog

Estimated 94,000 cards reproduced in 6 volumes

Price: $390.00

Catalogue of the COLONIAL OFFICE LIBRARY, London

Holdings recorded in this catalog cover all aspects of the organization and development of the countries that have been members of the British Commonwealth at any time during the last 300 years. The library also includes material on other countries, particularly in Africa, Asia and Latin America. Entries for pre-1950 accessions are arranged by subject and author; those for post-1950 acquisitions are in three sequences—authors and titles, subjects, and classifications.

187,000 cards plus sheaf entries reproduced in 15 volumes

Price: $875.00

First Supplement

Estimated 18,700 cards reproduced in 1 volume

Price: $120.00

10% additional charge on orders outside the U.S.

Descriptive material on these titles and a complete catalog of publications are available on request.

G. K. HALL & CO. 70 Lincoln Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02111

The Murmuring Stream

THE LIFE AND WORKS OF THE CHINESE NATURE POET HSIEH LING-YÜN (385-433), DUKE OF K'ANG LO

By J. D. FRODSHAM, University of Adelaide, South Australia. Hsieh Ling-yün is ranked as the first of the great Chinese nature-poets, a writer traditionally said to occupy much the same position as Wordsworth does in English literary history. As a poet, philosopher, and translator of Buddhist sutras he exercised considerable influence over the thought and culture of his day, while his position as a member of one of the leading families of the time provides us with an unprecedented insight into the social and governmental structure of Six Dynasties China. Dr. Frodsham's biography, which includes a complete translation of Hsieh's poetic works, is the first full-length study of this important writer to appear in any language. Maps, chart. In two volumes, $12.20

Introduction to the Sources of Ming History

By WOLFGANG FRANKE, University of Malaya. This book is an introduction to the numerous and complex available sources of Ming history. The Ming Dynasty (1368-1644), long neglected by historians due to the unfavorable political climate of the following dynasty, is now seen by scholars as the formative period of the Chinese political and social system prior to its clash with the Western world in the nineteenth century. $12.00

An Introduction to Classical Chinese

By RAYMOND DAWSON, University of Oxford. Designed to introduce the student to the language of the great classics of the late Chou Dynasty, this book presents passages from the Mencius, Chuang-tzu, Mo-tzu, Kuo-yü, and Tao-chuan along with a detailed grammatical commentary, written in language for the layman. Among other useful aids, the author supplies a vocabulary and a translation of the first few excerpts. $6.75

A Dravidian Etymological Dictionary

SUPPLEMENT

By T. BURROW, University of Oxford; and H. B. EMENEAU, University of California, Berkeley. New material has accumulated since the publication of the Dravidian Etymological Dictionary in 1961; two languages have been discovered and field work has yielded further information on incompletely recorded languages. The dictionaries of the major languages, and other published material, have been rechecked and items missing in the first edition have been added. The supplement contains 889 supplementary entries and supplementary material to existing entries. $6.75

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

200 Madison Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016

RALPH C.
CROIZIER

TRADITIONAL MEDICINE IN MODERN CHINA
Science, Nationalism, and the Tensions of Cultural Change

After describing the development of traditional Chinese medicine and showing its position in Confucian society, the author demonstrates the significance of its clash with modern scientific medicine for the cultural and intellectual history of modern China. Harvard East Asian Series, 34. $6.00

CARL F. NATHAN

PLAGUE PREVENTION AND ITS POLITICS IN MANCHURIA, 1910-1931

Mr. Nathan describes the plague of 1910-1911, and studies the North Manchurian Plague Prevention Service, the first Chinese-led organization to provide modern medical care for a large area. Harvard East Asian Monographs, 23. Distributed for the East Asian Research Center, Harvard University. Paper, $2.50

ADRIAN ARTHUR
BENNETT

JOHN FRYER AND THE INTRODUCTION OF WESTERN SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY INTO NINETEENTH-CENTURY CHINA

John Fryer was one of the first American Sinologists. This volume is a reconstruction of Fryer's life and thought while he was in China and an analysis of his translated works. Harvard East Asian Monographs, 24. Distributed for the East Asian Research Center, Harvard University. Paper, $3.25

EDWARD LeFEVOUR

WESTERN ENTERPRISE IN LATE CH'ING CHINA

A Selective Survey of Jardine, Matheson and Company's Operations, 1842-1895

This book examines Western entrepreneurial behavior and its effects in China between 1842 and 1895, and is based upon the records of the largest Western firm in China during those years—Jardine, Matheson and Company. Harvard East Asian Monographs, 25. Distributed for the East Asian Research Center, Harvard University. Paper, $3.50

KOREA
The Politics of the Vortex

This book presents a wholly new interpretation of the pattern of Korean politics and its origins in Korean society and culture, a valuable study of the comparative politics of modernization, and a suggestive proposal for encouraging political stability and pluralistic democracy in Asian and African societies. Center for International Affairs. $11.95

GREGORY
HENDERSON

STUDIES OF GOVERNMENTAL INSTITUTIONS IN CHINESE HISTORY

This book consists of seven articles from the Harvard Journal of Asiatic Studies, most of which have long been out of print. The contents range from descriptions of the Chinese central government in the Han and Ming periods to studies of such topics as early Manchu military forces and the civil service examination system. Harvard-Yenching Institute Studies, 23. Paper, $5.50

JOHN L. BISHOP,
Editor

DIGNĀGA, ON PERCEPTION
Being the Pratyakṣapariccheda of Dignāga's Pramā-ṇasamuccaya from the Sanskrit Fragments and the Tibetan Versions

This volume is the first in any Western language to offer a comprehensive study of a major body of Dignāga's thought. Harvard Oriental Series, 47. $10.00

MASAAKI HATTORI,
Translator and Annotator

CHINA'S EARLY INDUSTRIALIZATION
Sheng Hsuan-huai (1844-1916)
and Mandarin Enterprise

"A valuable contribution. . . [Mr. Feuerwerker's] analysis of the failure of China's effort to industrialize . . . is illuminating. His frequent reference to the experience of Japan and other Asian countries . . . makes his work even more interesting."—Journal of Asian Studies. Harvard East Asian Series, 1. Second Printing. $6.50

ALBERT
FEUERWERKER

In Canada/Saunders of Toronto, Ltd.

HARVARD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Prentice-Hall presents a complete analysis of the government and politics of Asia in a single volume for textbook use or individual paperbound editions for supplementary use

Modern Political Systems: Asia

Edited by Robert E. Ward, University of Michigan and Roy C. Macridis, Brandeis University

This comparative analysis of twenty-one contemporary Asian political systems reflects an extensive collaboration of five outstanding specialists in Asian politics. They devote major sections to Japan, India and the Chinese People's Republic. The eight Southeast Asian and ten Southwest Asian countries are treated in extensive area essays under one text cover. (One volume textbook). 1963, 482 pages, $9.95

Also available: Handy, paperback volumes which cover each Asian country separately. Individual volumes: Each approx. 128 pages, paperbound $1.95, clothbound $4.95. The titles are as follows:

- JAPAN by Robert E. Ward, University of Michigan
- INDIA by Richard L. Park, University of Michigan
- SOUTHEAST ASIA by Lucian W. Pye, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Additional volumes in preparation for publication in 1969.

- CHINA by Allen S. Whiting, Former Director of the Office of Research and Analysis for the Far East, Department of State
- MIDDLE EASTERN POLITICAL SYSTEMS by Dankwart A. Rustow, Columbia University

For approval copies, write: Box 903

Prentice-Hall, Englewood Cliffs, N. J. 07632

New and Forthcoming

PRAEGER

paperbacks

INDIA—A WORLD IN TRANSITION

Third Edition, Revised

BEATRICE PITNEY LAMB. In response to continual demand, this widely used text is now revised to include coverage of events up to early 1968. Designed by its author to show the dynamics of change in today's India in the light of her past, the work has been called "a fine, comprehensive introduction . . . an invaluable addition to college courses, where it fills a long-felt need."—Professor Milton Singer, University of Chicago. ca. 400 pp. U-650/ca. $3.50

INDIA AND PAKISTAN

A Political Analysis Revised Edition

HUGH TINKER. The new edition of this "excellent, readable survey" (The New York Times) analyzes in detail the 1962 border war with China, the January 1965 riots, the Indo-Pakistan conflict over Kashmir, the 1965 Pakistan electoral campaign, the premiership of Mrs. Indira Gandhi, and the future of the Congress Party. 248 pp. U-526/$2.50

THE POLITICAL THOUGHT OF MAO TSE-TUNG

Revised Edition

STUART R. SCHRAM. Professor Schram provides translations of many of Mao's most significant works and a penetrating interpretive commentary that has been called "the most searching, most illuminating document that has yet appeared" (The Observer, London). This edition includes a revised introduction, and many new selections covering Mao's thinking since 1963. ca. 340 pp. U-548/ca. $2.95

Forthcoming this fall

A SHORT HISTORY OF VIETNAM

JOSEPH BUTTINGER. This long-needed inexpensive one-volume history of Vietnam from earliest times to the present is a brilliant condensation of Mr. Buttinger's highly acclaimed The Smaller Dragon and the definitive two-volume Vietnam: A Dragon Embattled. The author adds an incisive new chapter to bring his comprehensive but concise narrative—clearly required reading for all who would understand the tangled war in Vietnam—up to the present day. ca. 500 pp., maps, notes, bibliog., index. U-651/ca. $3.95

FREDERICK A. PRAEGER 111 Fourth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10003

THE DEVELOPING ECONOMIES

Quarterly Journal
of

The Institute of Asian Economic Affairs

42, Ichigaya-Hommura-cho, Shinjuku-ku
Tokyo, Japan

Volume V

September 1967

Number 3

The Conditions Governing Agricultural Development in Southeast Asia T. MOTOOKA
On Socio-Economic Structure of Iranian Villages M. ŌNO
Paddy Farming and Social Structure

in a Malay Village M. KUCHIBA & Y. TSUBOUCHI
Strategic Elements in Rapid Economic Growth of Taiwan S. KAWANO

Export Promotion through Bonus Imports:

An Appraisal of India's Experiment I. S. GULATI

Profile of Asian Minded Man -VIII-

SOHŌ TOKUTOMI T. MIYAKAWA & T. IGETA

Book Reviews

Single copies: Ordinary issue $2.00 (post free)

Special issue $3.50 (post free)

Subscription price (4 issues): $9.00 (post free)

Orders may be sent to the sole agent,
MARUZEN COMPANY, LTD.,
P.O. Box 605, Tokyo Central, Tokyo, Japan

SEEKING A PUBLISHER?

Book publication is one of the foundation stones of a scholar's career in gaining recognition and advancement.

Exposition Press, under its special academic imprint, Exposition-University, offers you a complete publishing service . . . including editorial supervision, a dynamic marketing and promotional program, and professional distribution.

Your inquiries and manuscripts are invited (all subjects welcomed). An editorial report furnished without obligation.

FREE: Two fact-filled, illustrated brochures explain the behind-the-scenes story of publishing, describe our first edition plan, and present a breakdown of contract terms and typical costs.

Write Dept. 126 EXPOSITION PRESS 386 Park Ave., So., New York, N.Y. 10016

Cornell University Press

MUSLIMS
IN TRANSITION

Islam and Pakistan

By FREELAND ABBOTT. Against the background of the specific problems of Islam on the Indian subcontinent, Professor Abbott surveys the conflicts among the most influential traditionalist and modernist Muslims, past and present, the contributions of various sects and schools, and the tension between "mediaeval" doctrine and modern accommodation to secular conditions. He presents both the essence of Islamic belief and the history of the Muslim expansion into India.

256 pages, frontispiece, 13 illustrations, 3 maps. $6.75

POLITICAL POTPOURRI

Political Parties in Lebanon

The Challenge of a Fragmented Political Culture

By MICHAEL SULEIMAN. The role of political parties in a "confessional democracy" like Lebanon's demonstrates the function and limitations of parties in many emerging nations. In this pioneering study, Professor Suleiman examines the parties on their own terms—as political guides and critics in a highly sectarian society. "This scholarly, documented description and analysis of Lebanon's nineteen parties, legal and illegal . . . tells a great deal about the politics of Lebanon and, because some of the parties ignore existing frontiers, the politics of other Arab states as well."—Foreign Affairs. 336 pages. $7.50

ISRAELI-ARAB STRUGGLE

Israel on the Road to Sinai

With a Sequel on the Six-Day War, 1967

By ERNEST STOCK. Since history has repeated itself in the Middle East, much can be gained from a backward look at the causes and the results of the Sinai Campaign of October, 1956. Ernest Stock's incisive study focuses on Israel's foreign policy leading up to that campaign. The objectives of Israeli policy and the means employed to achieve them are discussed in terms of contemporary theories of international relations, and a concluding chapter assesses the present situation and the prospects for a lasting peace. 254 pages. $6.50

Cornell University Press
ITHACA, NEW YORK 14850

Aspects of Social Change in Modern Japan

EDITED BY R. P. DORE

This third volume in the series "Studies in the Modernization of Japan" is concerned with determining the consequences for the noneconomic parts of the social structure of changes in economic organization which occur as society becomes more productive. The authors approach this problem generally through six working hypotheses, labeled for convenience—ascriptive and achievement; specificity of authority; the volume of authority; the range of choice; the criteria of choice; and rationality and secularism. $9.50

West Bengal and the Federalizing Process in India

MARCUS F. FRANDA

Professor Franda deals with the complexities of India's federalizing experiences by analyzing the politics of center-state relations as they affect one Indian state—West Bengal. He explores the various ways in which central and state leadership groups in India and West Bengal have developed working relationships, and examines the effect of state and regional political, economic, and social conditions on the evolution of center-state behavior patterns. $7.50

Government and Local Power in Japan, 500 to 1700

A Study Based on Bizen Province

JOHN WHITNEY HALL

Professor Hall traces the evolution of Japanese government in relation to its premodern sources of political power and authority by focusing on the single province of Bizen. From this microcosm of Japanese life emerge clear patterns of social, economic, and political organization and behavior which underlay Japanese local and national government. $12.50

Scholars are invited to write The Editor for a complimentary copy of our style booklet.

Princeton University Press

Princeton, New Jersey 08540

The Beginnings of Chinese Civilization

THREE LECTURES ILLUSTRATED WITH FINDS AT ANYANG

Li Chi. "This is undoubtedly the most important work on early Chinese culture that has appeared in many years. All students of Chinese cultural history will be grateful to Li for presenting new material . . . and for making available for the first time photographs of a number of important items."—American Anthropologist. 141 pp., illus. Cloth, $7.95. Paper, $2.95

Asian Rural Society: China, India, Japan

Tadashi Fukutake. Combining first-hand reports over the last twenty-five years with theoretical analysis, the author furnishes challenging perspectives on the recent technological advances that have dramatically altered the fabric of rural life in many parts of Asia and answers such questions as, "What do the changes in Chinese, Indian, and Japanese economics indicate about future trends in rural areas?" 221 pp., illus., maps. Cloth only, $6.00

Rural China

IMPERIAL CONTROL IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

Kung-chuan Hsiao. "On the 'must read' lists of students of politics, social organization, anthropology, and world affairs. It is a minutely documented account of the techniques and results of Oriental Despotism."—American Political Science Review. 797 pp. Cloth, $10.00. Paper, $4.95

Power Relations within the Chinese Communist Movement, 1930-34

VOLUME II: THE CHINESE DOCUMENTS

Edited by Tso-liang Hsiao. The Shih Sou and Nationalist government's Bureau of Investigation collections reproduced for the first time in this massive volume "will henceforth form . . . primary sources for the study of Chinese Communist history during the early thirties."—China Quarterly. Text in Chinese. 849 pp. Cloth only, $25.00

Volume I, subtitled A STUDY IN DOCUMENTS, is also available. 416 pp. Cloth only, $8.50

The Twelve Deeds of Buddha

A MONGOLIAN VERSION OF THE LALITAVISTARA

Nicholas Poppe. Presents a rare and illuminating specimen of early Mongolian Buddhist literature in a definitive, annotated English translation along with the Mongolian manuscript in both photographic reproduction and the standard transcription. 242 pp., illus. Paper only, $7.50

Revelations of a Russian Diplomat

THE MEMOIRS OF DMITRII I. ABRIKOSSOW

Edited by George Alexander Lensen. A Czarist Russian diplomat's inside view of historical events in Peking, London, Tokyo, and St. Petersburg that is "revealing of the author, of Russian society in the imperial twilight, and of the Foreign Office bureaucracy."—New York Times. 351 pp., illus. Cloth, $6.95. Paper, $2.95

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON PRESS

Seattle and London

JOURNAL OF CONSTITUTIONAL AND PARLIAMENTARY STUDIES

The quarterly Journal is devoted to studies in comparative constitutional law and problems and prospects of democratic governments in India and abroad. It is intended to serve as an independent forum of discussion in depth on problems of parliamentary procedure and legislative institutions. The basic object of the Journal as of the Institute sponsoring it is to disseminate democratic values and foster popular understanding of parliamentary institutions at different levels.

Besides detailed notes on Constitutional and Parliamentary Developments during the quarter, case studies and book reviews, the October-December 1967 issue of the Journal contains exclusive articles by Dr. N. M. Khilnani, Deputy Director (Historical Division) Ministry of External Affairs on "CONSTITUTIONAL BASIS OF THE UNION CABINET"; Edward Gough Whillam, Leader of the Federal Opposition in Australian Parliament on "SOME ASPECTS OF THE FEDERAL SYSTEM IN AUSTRALIA"; B. Mehta, Member, Official Language (Legislative) Commission and a former Chief Secretary to the Rajasthan Government on "PARLIAMENT AND THE ADMINISTRATOR"; and by Dr. Jai Narain Lal on "ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT OF INDIA."

Also Notes, Case Studies and Book Reviews.

Annual Subscription	Rs. 15.00	or	$5.50	or	46s.
Single copy	Rs. 4.00	or	$1.50	or	12s. 6d.

The Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies
18-Vithalbhay Patel House, Rafi Marg, New Delhi-1.

ASIAN TRANSLATION SERIES

- THE TAO TEH CHING/LAO TZU, Trans. by John C. H. Wu; ed. Paul K. T. Sih
Ancient Chinese Classic. A written expression of the religious philosophy of Taoism. Chinese-English texts. Paperbound $2.00
- THE HSIAO CHING/CONFUCIUS, Trans. by Mary Lelia Makra, M.M., ed. by Paul K. T. Sih
A philosophical dialogue between Confucius and his disciple, Tseng Tzu. Clothbound $3.50
- THE PLATFORM SCRIPTURE, Trans. with an introduction by Professor Wing-tsit Chan
The Tun-huang manuscript with Chinese-English texts. This book is also suitable for study of the original Chinese text. Clothbound $3.50

ASIAN PHILOSOPHICAL SERIES

- WANG YANG-MING, by Carsun Chang
The life and thought of the sixteenth century philosopher whose monistic idealism shaped the mysteries of the East. Paperbound $2.50
- CHINESE HUMANISM AND CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY, Essays of John C. H. Wu; ed. by Paul K. T. Sih
This book explores an area of equal interest; the mutual interplay between Oriental and Occidental culture. Paperbound $5.00
- MENCIUS: THE MAN AND HIS IDEAS, by Albert Felix Verwilghen
A lucid study of the life, philosophy, and ideas of Mencius (372-289 B.C.) whose system of thought forms a major element in Confucian tradition. Paperbound $2.95

ASIAN HISTORICAL SERIES

● Monograph Series

This monograph series presents some of the most important issues relating to the internal and external relations of China in this century.

1. THE CHINESE REVOLUTION OF 1911 by C. T. Liang $1.00
2. CHINA AND THE PARIS PEACE CONFERENCE, 1919 by Wunsz King $1.00
3. CHINA AND THE WASHINGTON CONFERENCE, 1921-1922 by Wunsz King $1.25
4. CHINA AND THE NINE POWER CONFERENCE AT BRUSSELS IN 1937 by Tsien Tai $1.25
5. CHINA AND THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS by Wunsz King $2.00

The complete set of five studies, boxed, is offered at the special price of $5.00 (postage included).

THE KUOMINTANG: Selected Historical Documents, 1894-1965, by Milton J. T. Shieh
A documentary study of the history of the Kuomintang, the Nationalist Party of China. Publication Date Fall 1968

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY PRESS
Grand Central and Utopia Parkways, Jamaica, New York 11432

Monographs and Papers of the ASSOCIATION FOR ASIAN STUDIES . . .
 published by the University of Arizona Press

K'ANG YU-WEI: A BIOGRAPHY & A SYMPOSIUM	Vol. XXIII
	Edited, with translation by Jung-pang Lo
541 pp.	1967	$14.50
A DOCUMENTARY CHRONICLE OF SINO-WESTERN RELATIONS (1644-1820)	Vol. XXII	by Lo-shu Fu
792 pp.	1966	$14.50
BEFORE AGGRESSION: EUROPEANS PREPARE THE JAPANESE ARMY	Vol. XXI	by Ernst L. Presseisen
160 pp.	1965	$5.00
SHINRAN'S GOSPEL OF PURE GRACE	Vol. XX	by Alfred Bloom
97 pp.	1967	$5.00
CHIARAIJIMA VILLAGE: LAND TENURE, TAXATION, AND LOCAL TRADE	Vol. XIX	by William Chambliss
144 pp.	1965	$5.00
THE BRITISH IN MALAYA—THE FIRST FORTY YEARS (1786-1826)	Vol. XVIII	by K. G. Tregonning
186 pp.	1965	$4.50
CH'OE PU'S DIARY: A RECORD OF DRIFTING ACROSS THE SEA	Vol. XVII	by John Meskill
177 pp.	1965	$4.50
KOREAN LITERATURE: TOPICS & THEMES	Vol. XVI	by Peter H. Lee
141 pp.	1965	$3.75
REFORM, REBELLION, AND THE HEAVENLY WAY	Vol. XV	by Benjamin Weems
117 pp.	1964	$3.75
THE MALAYAN TIN INDUSTRY TO 1914	Vol. XIV	by Wong Lin Ken
302 pp.	1965	$6.50

The University of Arizona Press

PO Box 3398, College Station

Tucson, Arizona 85700

ASIAN SURVEY

Leading American monthly devoted exclusively to current developments in Asia. Coverage of political, economic and social trends in such societies as Communist China, India, Japan, Pakistan, Korea, Indonesia, Thailand and Burma.

Recent articles have analyzed such topics as Political Alternatives to the Viet Cong, The Japanese Self-Defense Forces, Sino-American Relations, Indonesia's Stabilization Program, Radio Propaganda in Chinese Villages, Separatist Tendencies in Eastern India, and Burmese Domestic Policy.

Two structured issues are published in January and February surveying trends for the previous year in some 20 Asian countries. Additional special coverage is provided at intervals, e.g., the August 1967 issue on Vietnam and the June 1967 issue devoted largely to Charismatic Leadership in Asia.

Rates: $8 per year for 12 issues ($9 for overseas subscribers). Special student rate: $4 per year. ASIAN SURVEY, University of California, 2234 Piedmont Avenue, Berkeley, California 94720.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Twenty-First Annual Meeting of the Association for Asian Studies will be held at the Sheraton Boston Hotel, Boston, March 28-30, 1969

The Twenty-Second Annual Meeting of the Association for Asian Studies will be held at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, San Francisco, April 4-6, 1970

A major event in foreign affairs reporting

THIS IS COMMUNIST CHINA

by ROBERT TRUMBULL

Tokyo Bureau Chief, N.Y. Times, and the staff of *Yomiuri Shimbun

There is no question that this book is one of the fullest, most reliable and most informed accounts available to the Western reader of what's happening in China today. During 1966 and 1967, Yomiuri, one of Japan's three largest newspapers, sent a staff of journalists with strong China backgrounds into Communist China for an extended survey of this sprawling country. So penetrating were their firsthand accounts that the Communist Chinese Government ordered the Peking bureau of Yomiuri closed.

Working with the original dispatches and new material from interviews with the journalists who were in China, Robert Trumbull presents a fascinating and immensely informative portrait of Communist China today.

As the author states: "This book is about what Mao wants, what he means, how his ideas are applied in practical ways to advance Communist China on the road to modernization. We have interviews through the full spectrum of the population: intellectuals, officials, students, farmers, housewives, laborers, factory workers. Here, I believe, will be an unbiased portrait of Red China today that will explain the source of its energies, the record of its accomplishments and its failures in the last two decades, and, perhaps most important of all, what the hopes of the people and their leaders are for the China of the future."

Illustrated with 16 pages of exclusive photos by the Yomiuri staff.

Coming in July. Order now from your bookstore.
$6.95

DAVID McKAY COMPANY, INC., New York, 10017

RECENTLY PUBLISHED

The Wayfarer by Soseki

TRANSLATED AND WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY BEONGCHEON YU

This book is the first English translation of the psychological novel Kojin by the very popular Japanese novelist Natsume Kinnosuke, whose pen name was Soseki.

The story concerns the spiritual anguish of Ichiro Nagano, an introspective, learned professor in a Tokyo university and his estrangement from his wife and family. The book's narrator is Jiro, Ichiro's younger brother. The Wayfarer well illustrates a principle Soseki theme of man's isolation.

The translator, Beongcheon Yu, is associate professor of English at Wayne State University. He is the author of An Ape of Gods: The Art and Thought of Lafcadio Hearn (Wayne State, 1964).

326 PAGES/$8.95 from your bookseller or

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Detroit, Michigan 48202

AN INTRODUCTION TO RUSSIAN HISTORY AND CULTURE, Fifth Edition

Ivar Spector, University of Washington.
Fall 1968

ASIAN POLITICAL SYSTEMS: Readings on China, Japan, India and Pakistan

Edited by Betty Burch, Tufts University; and Allan B. Cole, The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University. Spring 1968, about $4.95 (paper).

A HISTORY OF SINO-INDIAN RELATIONS: Hostile Co-Existence

John Rowland. 1967, 304 pages, $6.95. Available in a paperbound edition—May 1968

THE ESSENCE OF CHINESE CIVILIZATION

Edited by Dun J. Li, Paterson State College (New Jersey). 1967, 496 pages, $4.95 (paper).

Send for your on-approval copies. Write College Department,

Van Nostrand

120 Alexander Street
Princeton, New Jersey 08540

Asian Art

TWO GREAT MASTERS OF UKIYO-E, chosen by Time Magazine as one of the outstanding gift items of 1966, is a boxed set containing Hiroshige's The 53 Stages of the Tokaido and Hokusai's The 36 Views of Mount Fuji. Lavishly illustrated with a total of 102 plates in full color and with an illuminating text by Ichitaro Kondo, the two volumes present in essence one of the most charming periods in the history of Japanese art. Recommended by the Seven Arts Book Society and the Book-of-the-Month Club. The two volumes are available separately at $12.50 each. Boxed set $24.50

.....

KANGRA PAINTINGS OF THE GITA GOVINDA, by M. S. Randhawa, with an introduction by W. G. Archer, was originally published by the National Museum, New Delhi. "A sumptuous book from India based on paintings executed by Manak in the 18th century for Jayadeva's 12th century poem, the 'Gita Govinda.'" (Chicago Tribune) "Small wonder this book took first prize for its beauty in an all-India book prize." (Antiquarian Bookman)

36 illus., 20 in full color $25.00

.....

THE CONTEMPORARY ARTIST IN JAPAN, by David Kung, introduces the reader to the widest possible range of views and styles among Japanese artists by presenting the varied and contrasting work being produced in Japan today. "An excellent introduction to modern Japanese art . . . Highly recommended." (Library Journal)

128 illus., 24 in full color $15.00

.....

CHINESE SCULPTURE, BRONZES, AND JADES IN JAPANESE COLLECTIONS, by Yuzo Sugimura, with English adaptation by Burton Watson, offers in color and gravure a wide variety of superb Chinese pieces, many of which, because they are in private collections, have never before been seen publicly even within Japan. "The plates are exciting . . . This is an ideal book to awaken interest in the art of ancient China, or to delight those already wakened to it." (The Asian Student) $17.50

.....

MUSIC FROM KOREA: THE KAYAKEUM presents Byongki Hwang, Korean composer and foremost performer of the kayakeum, in an exciting blend of modern and traditional music on this LP recording. "For listeners who are open to a new aural and emotional experience, I strongly recommend this set . . . Performance: Subtle, absorbing . . . Recording: Excellent." (Hi-Fi Stereo Review) Mono or Stereo $5.75

Cultural and Technical Interchange
Through Books

East-West Center Press—Honolulu

