EPHESOS

Metropolis of Asia

An Interdisciplinary Approach to its Archaeology, Religion, and Culture

Edited by HELMUT KOESTER

This volume brings together studies of Ephesos, a major city in the Greco-Roman period and a primary center for the spread of Christianity into the Western world, by an international array of scholars from the fields of classics, fine arts, history of religion, New Testament, ancient Christianity, and archaeology. The studies focus on the results of one hundred years of archaeological work at Ephesos by members of the Austrian Archaeological Institute and include interesting and controversial results of recent investigations: the Processional Way of Artemis, the Hadrianic Olympieion and the Church of Mary, the so-called Temple of Domitian, and the heroa of Androklos and Arsinoe. A fold-out map of Ephesos is included.
