

Journal of MULTILINGUAL and MULTICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

Editor Derrick Sharp

Review Editor Colin Williams

Associate Editor John Edwards

This journal, with its truly international editorial board, has done much to further the course of multilingual and multicultural studies in the eleven years since it was first published. It has ranged widely in its interests and is now especially keen to extend its range by publishing more articles and research studies in the areas of cultural and intercultural studies. It will of course continue to publish papers on all aspects of bilingualism and multilingualism, on minority languages and on the rights and obligations of minorities from many points of view.
