

Ampleforth, than from London or Birmingham or Manchester. These difficulties are being speedily resolved and the expansion of technical facilities, and the development of religious programmes in general, have enabled us to plan for the next few months almost as many Catholic transmissions as for the whole of last year.

---

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

MAURICE GORHAM; formerly Editor of Radio Times, Director of B.B.C. Light Programme 1945, Director of B.B.C. Television Service 1946-47. Now Director of Radio Eireann.

FREDA BRUCE LOCKHART; formerly Assistant Editor of Time and Tide. Film critic of The Tatler.

DAVID LLOYD JAMES; formerly announcer and on programme staff of B.B.C. Broadcaster and writer on radio.

AGNELUS ANDREW, O.F.M.; Catholic adviser and organizer to B.B.C. Frequent lecturer and broadcaster in U.S.A.

JOHN A. V. BURKE; Hon. Secretary, Catholic Film Institute. Vice-President Office Catholique International du Cinéma.