

---

NEWS

---

CALENDAR OF MEETINGS

Special Meetings on Latin America

Cycle of Conferences—Novas
Perspectivas do Federalismo
Brasileiro—Belo Horizonte
September 30–October 4, 1968

The law faculty of the Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais (UFMG) and the Revista Brasileira de Estudos Políticos sponsored a series of sessions on new perspectives of Brazilian federalism. Participating speakers and their topics were: Raul Machado Horta, editor of the Revista and professor of constitutional law at UFMG, on Tendências do Federalismo Brasileiro; Luiz Navarro de Britto, Universidade Federal da Bahia, on O Federalismo na Constituição de 1967; M. Seabra Fagundes, former Minister of Justice, on A Expansão dos Poderes Federais; Washington Peluso Albino de Souza, UFMG, on O Planejamento Regional no Federalismo Brasileiro; and Aliomar Baleeiro, Minister of the Supreme Tribunal and professor, Universidade do Estado de Guanabara, on Aspectos Financeiros do Federalismo. Coordinator of the conference was Orlando M. Carvalho, Faculdade de Direito, Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais, Belo Horizonte, MG, Brazil.

Laval University International
Congress on Latin America
Quebec, October 3–8, 1968

Laval University hosted a conference organized by Paul Bouchard, and co-sponsored by the Ministry of Cultural Affairs of Quebec, the

UNESCO National Commission for Canada, the Canadian Council of Social Science Research and the Council of Humanities Research. Multiple sessions were held on the themes: 1) The Economic Future of Latin America, with papers by Paul-Yves Denis; Hugh Hambleton; and two panel discussions; 2) The Cultural and Spiritual Contribution of Latin America, with papers by Paul Verdevoye and Richard Pattee; Georges Parent and Emir Rodriguez Monegal; George R. Coulthard, Alejandro del Corro, and Paul Strykman; Sergio Mendez Arceo, Albert Sanschagrín, and Gerard Cambron; and a panel discussion; 3) Man and Society in Latin America, featuring papers by Fernand Grenier; Edelberto Torres Rivas, Gerard Dion, and Jacques Gougeon; Porfirio Muñoz Ledo, Olga Pellicer de Bródy, Gabriel Gagnon, and Marcel Roussin; Yvan Labelle; and two panel discussions; and 4) Latin America in the Modern World, with papers by Victor Alfonso Maldonado; Jacques Lambert; Pellicer de Bródy, Coulthard, Roussin, André Corten, and Louis Bérubé; Paul Bouchard; and three panel discussions. Evening sessions featured addresses by invited scholars. More detailed information is available from Paul Bouchard, president, Faculté des Lettres, Université Laval, Edifice des Sciences Humaines, Cité Universitaire, Québec, Canada.

Regional Workshop on Educational Research—Buenos Aires
October 7–11, 1968

The Centro Nacional de Investigaciones Educativas, Buenos Aires, organized this meeting, in cooperation with UNESCO. Approximately 30 participants considered the themes of 1) state of education research in Latin America, 2) organization of research institutes, considered from the aspects of policy, extension of research topics, structure, selection of personnel, and financing, 3) formation of a class of specialists in educational research, with consideration given to curricular studies and professionalization, and 4) determination of priorities of research. An Informe Final has been published; information is available from the Centro Nacional de Investigaciones Educativas, Secretaría de Estado de Cultura y Educación, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

University of Michigan Conference on American Colonization
Ann Arbor, October 18, 1968

Comparative Colonization in America was the title of a special meeting, October 18, 1968, held at the University of Michigan.

Gordon Wood organized the meeting, which considered the various European colonization activities in America, as well as the technique and significance of making such comparisons. Participating in round table discussions concerned with Latin American colonization were Woodrow Borah, University of California, Berkeley, Richard Morse, Yale University, John Parry, Harvard University, and John TePaske, Ohio State University. Information is available from Dr. Wood, Department of History, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor 48104.

Conference on Disarmament in the Western Hemisphere
New Brunswick, October 24, 1968

Rutgers University hosted this conference, which was organized by James Watson. Discussions centered on the Treaty of Tl-telolco, banning nuclear weapons in Latin America, and upon the origin, purpose, and scope of such a prohibition. Participants who presented studies included Robert Alexander, director of the Rutgers Latin American Institute, William C. Foster, director of U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, Alfonso Garcia Robles, undersecretary of Mexican foreign relations, E. L. M. Burns, and Archibald Alexander. Information may be requested from Watson, Office of the President, Rutgers-the State University, New Brunswick, New Jersey 08903.

Latin American Studies
Conference—Edinburg
November 18–19, 1968

The Inter-American Institute, in cooperation with the School of Business Administration, of Pan American College sponsored the meeting, which was organized by T. Lawrence White. Papers were delivered by Douglass K. Ballentine, U. S. Embassy in Mexico, on The U. S. Business Image in Latin America, Eric Baklanoff, Louisiana State University, on The Role of the U. S. Business Investments in Mexico, Thomas Adams, University of Texas at Austin, on The United States Business Executive in Latin America, Thomas Cotner, U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, on Educational Exchange Programs Between the U. S. and Mexico, and Eugene C. McCann, Louisiana State University, on A Comparison of Management Philosophies: Anglo-American and Mexican. Information is available from Dr. White, director, Inter-American Institute, Pan American College, Edinburg, Texas 78539.

Seminar on National Development
Foundations—Washington, D. C.
November 18–21, 1968

National Development Foundations, Vehicles for Private Sector Involvement in Latin American Socio-Economic Development was the main theme of the meeting. In attendance were approximately 30 persons representing development foundations in Chile, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, and Guatemala, along with delegates from organizing committees of foundations in Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Peru, and Venezuela, and representatives of OAS, IDB, PAHO, AID, and the sponsoring organization, Pan American Development Foundation (PADF). Participants considered the subjects of financial management of foundation loan funds, endowment capital formation, management of the national foundations, and the Pan American Development Foundation as a resource. Proceedings were to be published by PADF, 19th and Constitution Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20006.

Symposium on Secondary Education
Problems in Latin America
Quito, December 16–21, 1968

Problems raised by structural changes and expansion in secondary education were considered, as a basis for concentrated study and planning of training for improvements of teaching staff, administration, and principles in diversification of secondary education in Latin America. Papers delivered included Private Secondary Education in Some Latin American Countries by Patricio Cariola, Problems of Secondary Education in Latin America by Ruth Lerner de Almea, and Technical Education Teacher Training in Latin America by Ernesto F. Babino. The Final Report is to be published by UNESCO. Information is available from the meeting's organizer, Eduardo Jonquières, Education Sector, UNESCO, Pl. de Fontenoy, Paris 7<sup>e</sup>, France.

SUNY Meeting on Latin American
Development—Buffalo
February 14–15, 1969

The meeting, part of the State University of New York Conversations in the Disciplines program, featured three panel discussions of topics within the fields of health, technology, and education which attempted a study of the integrated role of the three areas in Latin American development. Moderators of the respective panels were Rawle Farley, State University College at Brockport, Marvin Bernstein, State University College at Fredonia, and E. D. Duryea, State University of New York at Buffalo. Keynote speaker was Felipe Herrera, president of the Inter-American Development Bank. Information may be requested from George Schanzer, Crosby Hall, State University of New York at Buffalo, Buffalo, N. Y. 14214, or H. Sengbusch, Rockwell Hall, Buffalo State University College, Buffalo, N. Y. 14222.

Conference on the Role of Latin
American History in the High-School
Curriculum—San Antonio
February 22, 1969

Treating the theme of Latin American history, the meeting was designed for secondary school teachers. Director of the conference was Felix Almaraz, and speakers were Clark Gill, University of Texas at Austin, and Déa Fenelon, Inter-American Educational Center. The conference was jointly sponsored by the American Historical Association, the San Antonio Independent School District, and St. Mary's University. For information, write Felix Almaraz, Department of History, St. Mary's University, 2700 Cincinnati Avenue, San Antonio, Texas 78226.

Recurring Meetings

1st Encontro Brasileiro on Historical Studies—Nova Friburgo
July 7–13, 1968

The collaboration of the Prefeitura Municipal of Nova Friburgo and the Getúlio Vargas Foundation made this meeting possible. Ninety-three university professors attended the sessions, which focused attention on Brazil, Chile, and Uruguay. The following themes were discussed: problems of introduction to historical studies; introduction to historical studies as theory of historical knowledge: their value to the historical science; historical studies as auxiliary techniques of the historian; value of historiography within the themes of introduction to historical studies; relation of history to philosophy and sociology; and methodology, theory and historiography in university disciplines. Information concerning the Encontro may be requested from José Pedro Esposel, Rua Abel 64-Santa Rosa, Niteroi, R. J. Brazil.

1st Scientific Meeting of Latin American Nutrition Society
Caracas, September 1–4, 1968

Food and Nutrition Problems in Latin America was the theme of the meeting which was attended by approximately 200 persons. Eighty-five short papers were presented within the general subjects of socio-economic aspects of the production of food, food production and demographic problems, and nutrition training and education in Latin America. Information is available from the meeting's organizer, J. F. Dutra de Oliveira, president, Sociedade Latinoamericana de Nutrição, Faculdade de Medicina, Ribeirão Preto, S. P., Brazil.

53rd Annual Meeting of Association for the Study of Negro Life and History
New York, October 3–6, 1968

Papers of interest to Latinamericanists were featured at two sessions: Spain and the Negro in Louisiana, 1762–1803 by C. Richard Arena, Hartwick College, and Negro Military Organizations in Spanish Louisiana by Jack D. L. Holmes, University of Alabama at Birmingham, at a session entitled Negro and Spaniard in Louisiana; and The Role of Slaves and Freedmen in the Abolition of Slavery in Brazil by Robert Brent Toplin, Denison University, and Negro Villages in British Guiana in the Second Half of the Nineteenth Century by Alan Adamson, Sir George Williams University,

Latin American Research Review

at a session on The Negro in Latin America in the Nineteenth Century. Information may be requested from the program chairman, Walter Fisher, Department of History, Morgan State College, Baltimore, Maryland 21212.

2nd General Assembly of Consejo Latinoamericano de Ciencias Sociales
Lima, October 17–19, 1968

Hosting the meeting, which was attended by over 100 representatives of the member and honorary-member institutes, was the Instituto de Estudios Peruanos. Organizational sessions were held to consider the financial basis of CLACSO, ratify the membership of new centers, and discuss Consejo activities in research. The directing council approved the publication of an annual volume of selections of important articles published during the year in the various disciplines represented by CLACSO. Meetings were held by the working commissions on Urban and Regional Development, Latin American Data Bank, Rural Development, Demography, Economic History, and Studies of Dependence. Papers which were presented on the theme of the substantive sessions, Latin America: Economic Development and Dependence, included: Basic Industries, Integration, and International Corporations: Notes for an Analysis of Industrial Integration by Aldo Ferrer; The Public External Debt and Foreign Investment in Latin America by Miguel S. Wionczek; Dependence and Autonomy in Latin America by Helio Jaguaribe; and The Crisis of Development Theory and the Relations of Dependence in Latin America by Theotônio dos Santos. Information is available from Santiago Lebedinsky, Special Assistant to the Executive Secretary, Consejo Latinoamericano de Ciencias Sociales, Florida 142, Buenos, Aires, Argentina.

Annual Meeting of Southern Political Science Association—Gatlinburg
November 7–9, 1968

Of the fifteen panel sessions, one focused on Ideology and Politics in Latin America, and was chaired by Harry Kantor, Marquette University. Papers were delivered by Edward J. Williams, University of Arizona, on The Role of Christian Democracy in the Development of Latin American Democracy, Andrés Suárez, University of Florida, on The Castroistic Way for Latin America, and Leonard Cárdenas, Jr., Louisiana State University, on The Popular Parties Alternative for Latin America; discussants were Roland H. Ebel, Tulane University, and Neale Pearson, Miami University, Ohio. Information may be requested from Gladys Kammerer, president, Southern Political Science Association, Department of Political Science, University of Florida, Gainesville 32601.

1968 Annual Meetings of Geological Society of America and Associated Societies—Mexico City, November 11–13, 1968

Meetings were held by the Geological Society of America, the Paleontological Society, the Mineralogical Society of America, the Society of Economic Geologists, the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology, the Geochemical Society, the National Association of Geology Teachers, and the Geoscience Information Society. Hosting the gatherings were Mexican associations of geologists and engineers. During the session, a technical program, field trips, and special cultural functions were planned for the participants. Information and abstracts of papers are available from the Geological Society of America, P. O. Box 1719, Colorado Building, Boulder, Colorado 80302.

Conference of Heads of Caribbean Universities
San Juan, November 21–23, 1968

The University of Puerto Rico hosted the meeting which brought together the heads of universities and associated organizations of the Caribbean region to explore common problems and plan for collaboration between libraries and research institutes of the universities. The establishment of a permanent organization was approved; Sir Philip Sherlock, retiring vice-chancellor of the University of the West Indies, was elected Secretary General of the Association of Caribbean Universities and Research Institutes, and provisional headquarters have been established at Kingston, Jamaica. The association will pursue the goals of cooperation among the member institutions and maintenance of academic freedom from government influence for the individual universities. For information, write the meeting's organizer, Jaime Benitez, Institute of Caribbean Studies, University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico 00931.

67th Annual Meeting of American Anthropological Association
Seattle, November 21–24, 1968

At least 52 papers were delivered on Latin American topics at the following sessions: Attitudes and Values, chaired by Robert A. Levine; Anthropology of Complex Societies, chaired by Fred O. Gearing, University of California, Riverside; Symposium on Anthropology of Modernization: Adaptations to Economic Change, chaired by Frank C. Miller and Pertti J. Pelto, University of Minnesota; Political Anthropology: American Indians, chaired by William N. Fenton, New York State Museum; Social Structure, chaired by David M. Schneider, University of Chicago; Language, Linguistic Behavior, and Communication Systems: I, chaired by John J. Gumperz, University of California, Berkeley; Urbanization and Industrialization: Process, chaired by Joel M. Halpern, University of Massachusetts; Symposium on Hallucinogens and Shamanism, chaired by Michael J. Harner, Columbia University; Language, Linguistic Behavior, and Communication Systems: II, chaired by William Bright, UCLA; Symposium on Poverty and Social Disorder, chaired by Harland Padfield, University of Arizona; Sociocultural Change: Theory and Process, chaired by George D. Spindler, Stanford University; Archaeology: Middle and South America: I, chaired by Michael D. Coe, Yale University; Symposium on American Indian Languages: I, chaired by M. Dale Kinkade, University of Kansas; Medical Anthropology; Sociocultural Change: Native Societies under Western Influence; Economic Anthropology: Latin America; Symposium on Urban Anthropology: Ethnic Adaptations in the City, chaired by Thomas Weaver and Douglas White, University of Pittsburgh; Anthropological Approaches to Marriage and the Family; Symposium on American Indian Languages: II, chaired by Wallace L. Chafe, University of California, Berkeley; Methods and Theories in Cultural Anthropology, chaired by Roy G. D'Andrade, Stanford University; Sociocultural Change: Translocated Segments of Complex Societies, chaired by John B. Cornell, University of Texas; Psychological Anthropology, chaired by Melford E. Spiro, University of California, San Diego; Kinship Systems and Kin Behavior, chaired by Robbins Burling, University of Michigan; Physical Anthropology and Demography, chaired by Robert A. Littlewood, Washington State University; Religion: Aspects in Pre-literate and Folk Societies; Symposium on Pre-Columbian Cultivated Field Systems in the New World, chaired by Melvin L. Fowler, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee; Anthropology of the Local Group; and Religion: Aspects in Complex Societies, chaired by Edward Norbeck, Rice University. Booklets of abstracts of the papers are available for $1.50. Information concerning particular papers may be requested from the session chairmen or the American Anthropological Association, 3700 Massachusetts Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20016.

2nd Conference on Climatology and Related Fields in the Caribbean
San Juan, December 2-5, 1968

Sponsored by the University of Puerto Rico Graduate Program in Planning, the Institute of Tropical Meteorology, and the Institute of Caribbean Studies, the conference considered the theme The Environment and Planning: The Application of Climatology to Planning Problems in the Caribbean. Proceedings of the conference are to be published by the Institute of Caribbean Studies, University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico 00931, in conjunction with the Caribbean Economic Development Corporation.

2nd Inter-American Meeting of Agricultural Librarians and Documentalists with AIBDA General Assembly
Bogotá, December 2–7, 1968

Papers were delivered on the following topics: Progress in Latin American Agriculture by Enrique Blair Fabris; The Role of Agriculture in the Economic Development of Latin America by George Casas Briceño; Academic Training by María Dolores Malugani; In-Service Practice and Specialization by Celestino Bonfanti; Library Legislation and Status of the Agricultural Librarian by Ramón Nadurille T.; Dewey Decimal System by Sergio Salas; Universal Decimal Classification by Angel Fernández; Library of Congress Classification by David J. Lee; Titles of the National Agricultural Library of the United States by María José Galrao; Headings of the Library of Congress by Amalia Cavero de Cornejo; Normalization of Bibliographic Citations: Cooperative Efforts of IICA, PIBDA, and AIBDA by Ana María Paz de Erickson; Cooperative Cataloguing by Angela Hernández de Caldas; Cooperative Acquisitions by Marietta Daniels Shepard; Reproduction Services by Pablo Velásquez; Electrical Innovations and Agricultural Libraries by Joseph Becker; Mechanization of Processes and Routines of Libraries by J. Richard Blanchard; Systems of Information Recovery by Mary E. Corning; Perspectives of Automation in Latin America by Abner Vicentini; Use by FAO of Modern Methods of Documentation in the Agricultural Field by Raymond Aubrac; Automation in the National Agricultural Library of the United States by John Sherrod; and Sources of Information on Tropical Agriculture by H. E. Thrupp. Information is available from Angela Hernández de Caldas, president, Asociación Interamericana de Bibliotecarios y Documentalistas Agrícolas, Biblioteca, Instituto Tecnológico Agrícola, Apdo. Aéreo 449, Pasto, Colombia.

2nd Meeting on Science Policy and Research in Latin American Nations
Caracas, December 10–17, 1968

The second Meeting of Directors of National Councils for Scientific Policy and Research of Latin American Member States was sponsored by UNESCO and organized by the UNESCO Regional Centre for the Advancement of Science in Latin America, P. O. Box 859, Montevideo, Uruguay. Participants, representing national research councils, academies of science, and government ministries in all Latin American countries, along with UN representatives and observers from regional organizations, considered the subjects of recent evolution of the science policy of countries of Latin America, main problems of long-term science planning in Latin America, and principles and methods of regional and international cooperation in science and technology. Papers and commentary are to be published by UNESCO. Further information may be requested from the organizing headquarters, noted above.

Latin American Research Review

Annual Meeting of American Association for Advancement of Science
Dallas, December 26–31, 1968

One section, devoted to anthropological studies and organized by Anthony Leeds, Department of Anthropology, University of Texas, Austin 78712, featured the following papers: Prehistoric Cultural Adaptations in the Northern Chihuahan Desert by T. N. Campbell, University of Texas; Implications of Excavations in Nuevo Leon and Coahuila, 1962–67 by Jeremiah F. Epstein, University of Texas; Possible Cultural Evidence for the Altithermal in Texas and Northeastern Mexico by Charles R. Nance, University of Alabama at Birmingham; Settlement Patterns in the Tamaulipas Area by Joel L. Shiner, SMU; The Military in Brazil: Ideology and Activities by Elizabeth Leeds, University of Texas; A Comparative Analysis of Compadrazgo in the Philippines with Spain and Latin America by Donn V. Hart, Syracuse University; Ideology of Economic Development in Mexico by Clark Reynolds, Stanford University; Revolutionary Ideologies in Argentina by Gilbert Merckx, University of New Mexico; Background to Ideologies of Change in Colombia by Eric Hobsbawm, University of London; Protest and Poverty: A Comparative Study of Puerto Rican and United States Urban Black Ideologies by Helen Safa, Rutgers University; Ideological Consciousness among Indians of Bolivia and Mexico by June Nash, New York University; and Social Change and Political Ideologies in Brazil by Helio Jaguaribe, MIT. A panel discussion was held on Science, Technology, and Latin American Developments; papers were delivered by H. F. Robinson, University of Georgia, on Prospects for Food Production, Harley Browning, University of Texas, on Demographic Problems, Richard N. Adams, University of Texas, on The Social-Political Problems of Development, Theresa Téllez, National Academy of Science, on Bilateral and Regional Scientific Technological Development, Dwight Brothers, Harvard University, on International Transmission of Technology by Means of Private Investment, and Victor Urquidi, Colegio de Mexico, on Science Policy and National Economic Development in Latin America.

Annual Meeting of Modern Language Association of America
New York, December 27–29, 1968

Two sessions centered on Latin American topics: Spanish-American Literature of the Twentieth Century, chaired by James W.

Robb, George Washington University, featured La mitología azteca en La región más transparente de Carlos Fuentes by María A. Salgado, University of North Carolina, Función estructural del leitmotiv en el Hijo de ladrón de Manuel Rojas by Zumilda Gertel, University of Nebraska, and La correlación "sujeto-objeto" entre la ontología de Jean-Paul Sartre y su adaptación novelística en El túnel de Ernesto Sábato by Helmy F. Giacomán; while the session The Literature of Spanish America to 1900, chaired by Joseph Sommers, University of Washington, featured papers entitled The Status of Research in Spanish American Literature Written Before Independence by Harvey L. Johnson, University of Houston, José María Heredia: the Poet and the Ideal of Liberty by Raymond D. Souza, University of Kansas, and José Martí: El empleo artístico de la anécdota by Andrew P. Debicki, University of Kansas. Information may be requested from the convention manager, Mrs. Annabelle Quick, Modern Language Association, 62 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10012.

83rd Annual Meeting of American Historical Association
New York, December 28–30, 1968

Four Latin American sessions were featured at the AHA meeting, which was attended by approximately 425 persons: 1)

Class and Caste in Colonial Peru, chaired by Thomas F. McGann, University of Texas, with papers by Frederick P. Bowser, Stanford University, on The Negro, and Karen W. Spalding, Rutgers University, on The Indian; 2) the Conference on Latin American History session on Cuba: A Decade of Revolution, 1958–1968, chaired by Robert Freeman Smith, University of Connecticut, with papers by Maurice Zeitlin, University of Wisconsin, on Social Structure and Social Revolution, and Richard Fagen, Stanford University, on Revolutionary Ideology and Practice: Are There Constants?; 3) Colonial Bureaucracies in the Americas, chaired by Jack P. Greene, Johns Hopkins University, with papers by Stanley Katz, University of Wisconsin, on Anglo-North America, Stuart Schwartz, University of Minnesota, on Portuguese America, and John L. Phelan, University of Wisconsin, on Spanish America; and 4) The British Informal Empire in Latin America (1850–1940): Two Cases, chaired by Robin W. Winks, Yale University, with papers by Peter Winn, Princeton University, on Uruguay, and Richard Graham, University of Utah, on Brazil. At the CLAH luncheon, Charles C. Griffin, Vassar College, delivered an address on Latin American History in the United States: A Retrospective View. Meetings were held by the Board of Directors of the Hispanic American Historical Review and the CLAH Committee on Brazilian Studies, the latter having as a special topic of consideration Archival Sources for Research on Colonial and Twentieth Century Brazil. Next year's meeting is planned for Washington, D. C. Further information may be requested from the office of the Executive Secretary, American Historical Association, 400 A Street, S. E., Washington, D. C. 20003.

2nd Annual Meeting of Society
for Historical Archaeology
Tucson, January 9–11, 1969

Latin American content was featured in four papers: Recent Developments in Spanish Colonial Archaeology at Florida by Charles

H. Fairbanks, University of Florida; Excavations in Spanish Colonial Sites in Texas, with a Note on Styles of Ring Bits by Curtis Tunnel, Texas State Building Commission; Religious Medals in Spanish-American Sites by Richard E. Ahlborn, Smithsonian Institution; and The Spanish Jesuit Mission of 1567–68 in Southwest Florida by Clifford M. Lewis, S.J., Wheeling College. Program chairman was Roderick Sprague, Laboratory of Anthropology, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho 83843.

5th Inter-American Symposium for Linguistics and Language Teaching
São Paulo, January 9–15, 1969

Sponsored by the Inter-American Program for Linguistics and Language Teaching, the symposium was held in conjunction with the 2nd Congress of the Association of Linguistics and Language Teaching (January 4–8) and the 3rd Inter-American Linguistics Institute and 3rd Brazilian Linguistics Institute (January 15–February 28). Organizer was Francisco Gomes de Matos, Centro de Linguística Aplicada, Rua Aurora 713–8º, São Paulo 2, S.P., Brazil.

Inter-American Forum
New York, January 22–23, 1969

Preceding the annual conference of the Catholic Inter-American Cooperation Program, the invitational Forum had as its theme Humanization and Modernization in the Two Americas: Problems and Challenges. Papers were delivered on the general topic by Hector Borrat, Seymour Siegel, Renato Poblete, Alberto Guerreiro Ramos, David Felix, Philip C. Walsh, Luis Alberto Gómez de Souza, Leopoldo J. Niilus, Csanad Toth, Almir dos Santos, Juan Luis Segundo, James Petras, and Sidney Lens. A major portion of the session time was spent in discussion of humanization and modernization from the aspects of theology, philosophy, economics, business, education, urban and rural problem areas, and U. S. policy. Information is available from Brady Tyson, Forum Committee Chairman, Box 1066, Washington, D. C. 20005.

6th Annual CICOP Conference
New York, January 24–26, 1969

Discussion workshops, on various topics within the major theme of Human Rights and the Liberation of Man in the Americas, featured talks by: Victor Alba, Kent State University; Brian Beun, Adlai Stevenson Institute of International Studies; Paulo Freire, UNESCO; Thomas P. Melady, Pax Romana; Robert J. Alexander, Rutgers University; Hector Borrat, Movimiento Internacional de Estudiantes Católicos (MIEC), Uruguay; Jorge Mejía, Universidad de Buenos Aires; Luis Alberto Gomez de Souza, Latin American School of Political Science and Public Administration, Santiago; James J. O'Connor, Academy for Food Marketing; Marina Bandeira, Movimento de Educação de Base; Jovelino Ramos, Columbia University; Leopoldo Nilus, Iglesia y Sociedad en América Latina; François Lepargneur, Central Institute of Philosophy and Theology, Brazil; Neil Hurley, S.J., University of Notre Dame; Pedro Velazquez, Mexico; Luis Alberto Meyer, MIEC, Paraguay; William N. Simonson, Temple University; Carlos Sanz de Santamaria, Inter-American Committee of Alliance for Progress; John Saxe-Fernandez, Hofstra University; Rene de Leon Schlotter, Instituto para el Desarrollo Económico y Social de América Central, Guatemala; and Juan A. Casasco, Catholic University of America. Special presentations were made by Juan Luis Segundo, S.J., Centro Pedro Fabro, Uruguay, on Wealth and Poverty as Impediments to Human Development; Alejandro Magnet, Chilean Ambassador to the OAS, on Obstacles to the Realization of Human Rights in the Americas; Glen Smiley, Special Ministry to Latin America, California, on Hope: Man's Potential for Responsible Freedom; Bernard Haring, Union Theological Seminary, on Man in Quest of Liberation for Responsible Freedom; Robert J. Fox, Spanish Community Action, Archdiocese of New York, on Planning for Action; and Helder P. Camara, Archbishop of Olinda and Recife, Brazil, on Human Rights and the Liberation of Man in the Americas: 1969. Information is available from Louis M. Colonnese, director of CICOP, Catholic Inter-American Cooperation Program, 1401 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.

3rd Pan American Congress for Psychoanalysis—New York
February 23–27, 1969

Horacio Etchegoyen, Argentina, and Luisa G. de Alvarez de Toledo, Angel Garma, León Grinberg, and Arnold Raskovsky delivered principle papers on the two subjects. Information is available from León Grinberg, vice president, International Psycho-Analytical Association, Pueyrredon 2395—10<sup>o</sup>, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Themes considered were The First Hour of a Psychoanalytic Treatment and Dreams in Contemporary Clinical Analysis.

Meetings of Regional Associations of Latin American Studies

Fall Meeting of Wisconsin Council of Latin Americanists
LaCrosse, October 18, 1968

Viterbo College was the site of the meeting, which featured papers by Edward Schuster, Loras College, on The Church and Social Revolution in Latin America, Jeanne Strauss, Wisconsin State University—

Latin American Research Review

Stevens Point, on Three Spanish American Novelists and Their Worlds, Ramiro Mañalich, WSU—LaCrosse, on Centennial of Grito de Yara, Cuba, October 10, 1868, and a Panoramic Outlook of Latin America, and by featured speaker Manuel J. Reyes, CBS Latin American News Editor, on Latin America Today.

Spring Meeting of Wisconsin Council of Latin Americanists—Beloit
February 27–March 1, 1969

Theme of the conference, which was held at Beloit College, was Revolution in Latin America. Papers, which emphasized Cuban topics, were read by Ramón Eduardo Ruiz, Smith College, Maurice Zeitlin, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Lee Lockwood, and Andrés Suárez, University of Florida, and a film, Report on Cuba, by Saul Landau, was shown. Seminar leaders were Daniel di Piazza, University of Wisconsin—Whitewater, Robert Knowlton, University of Wisconsin—LaCrosse, Kenneth Grieb, University of Wisconsin—Oshkosh, Edward Schuster, Loras College, Jovelino P. Ramos, Brazilian Student Christian Movement, Leo Tracy, Maryknoll Missionary, and Harry Kantor, Marquette University. Information is available from Alonso Benavides, program chairman, Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin 53511.

2nd Annual Meeting of Southwest
Council of Latin American Studies
San Antonio, March 6–8, 1969

The Role of the Rio Grande Frontier and Other Barriers to Confluence was the theme of the meeting, which was organized by

Richard A. Johnson, 1968–69 president of SCOLAS. Meeting with SCOLAS were representatives of the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México who were celebrating the 25th anniversary of UNAM cultural extension courses at El Patronato, San Antonio, as well as representatives of Texas colleges and universities interested in forming a consortium for the purpose of microfilming Mexican archives, and the LASA Committee of Representatives of Regional Organizations. Panel sessions were held on the following topics: International Access to Information, The Frontier as a Factor in U. S.-Mexican Relations, The Arts and International Understanding, The Work of the U. S.-Mexico Commission for Border Development and Friendship, Concepts and Beliefs as Barriers to Understanding, Bi-Lingual Education in Mexico and the U. S., Scientific and Technical Cooperation Between Mexico and the United States, The Writer's Role in Breaching Cultural Barriers Between Spanish America and the United States, Some Aspects of the Impact of U. S. Economic and Political Policy, The Emerging Generation of Novelists in Latin America, The Guerrilla Tradition, and The Writer's Role in Breaching Cultural Barriers Between Spain and Spanish America. Trinity University's Principia Press is expected to publish a pamphlet of paper abstracts and proceedings of the meeting in the summer 1969. Information may be requested from Richard A. Johnson, Inter-Disciplinary Area Program, Trinity University, 715 Stadium Drive, San Antonio, Texas 78212.

16th Annual Meeting of Southeastern Conference on Latin American Studies
Gainesville, April 10–12, 1969

Aspects of Latin American Development is the general theme of the meeting which is to have sessions on New Lands and Migration, the U. S. Presence in Latin America, and Political Modernization. Write the program chairman, William E. Carter, acting director of Center for Latin American Studies, University of Florida, Gainesville 32601.

Annual Meeting of Midwest Association of Latin American Studies
Muncie, October 30–31, 1969

The theme is to be Cultural Change in Brazil. Write Tom L. Martinson, coordinator, International Studies, Ball State University, International House, Muncie, Indiana 47306.

The theme is to be Cultural Change in Brazil. Write Tom L. Martinson, coordinator, International Studies, Ball State University, International House, Muncie, Indiana 47306.

Future Meetings

7th Latin American Congress of Psychoanalysis

Location: Bogotá

Date: March 2–7, 1969

Official themes for the plenary sessions are Regression in the Psychoanalytic Process and Clinical Histories. Write Tufik Meluk or Carlos Plata Mujica, Sociedad Colombiana de Psicoanálisis, Calle 64, no. 9–42, Oficina 203, Bogotá, D. E., Colombia.

conjunction; theme of the key symposia is Anthropologists and Their Assumptions. Write the program chairman, Miles Richardson, Department of Geography and Anthropology, Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La. 70803.

14th Annual National Conference on Linguistics

Location: New York

Date: March 8–9, 1969

Write Eugenio Chang-Rodríguez, chairman of Conference Committee of Linguistic Circle of New York, Department of Romance Languages, Queens College, City University of New York, Flushing, N. Y. 11367.

Round Table of International Political Science Association

Location: Santiago

Date: March 17–22, 1969

The role of interest groups in the political development of Latin American nations is to be considered. Write Carlos Astiz, Center for Inter-American Studies, State University of New York at Albany, Albany, N. Y. 12201.

4th Annual Meeting of Southern Anthropological Society

Location: New Orleans

Date: March 13–15, 1969

The American Ethnological Society meets in

12th Inter-American Congress of Psychology

Location: Montevideo

Date: March 30–April 6, 1969

Theme of the congress is Education, Training and Research in Psychology. Write Inter-American Society of Psychology, 1801 Lavaca Street, Suite 11E, Austin, Texas 78701.

Latin American Research Review

Meeting of Southwestern Political Science Association

Location: Houston

Date: April 3–5, 1969

Joint meetings are to be held with the Southwestern Social Sciences Association. Write the program chairman Ronald F. Bunn, Department of Political Science, University of Houston, Houston, Texas 77004.

28th Meeting of Society for Applied Anthropology

Location: Mexico City

Date: April 9–15, 1969

Integration in the Americas is the major theme of the meeting. Write Lambros Comitas, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N. Y. 10027.

Latin American Directors' Meeting

Location: Lincoln

Date: April 14–15, 1969

Write Roberto Esquenazi-Mayo, director, Institute for Latin American and International Studies, University of Nebraska, Lincoln 68508.

13th Period of Sessions of the Economic Commission for Latin America

Location: Lima

Date: April 15–26, 1969

Write Carlos Quintana, Secretario Ejecutivo, CEPAL, Edificio Naciones Unidas, Avenida Dag Hammarskjold, Casilla 179 D, Santiago, Chile.

University of Houston 4th Annual Conference on Latin America

Location: Houston

Date: April 17–19, 1969

Contemporary Latin America is the theme of the conference. Write Harvey L. Johnson, Division of Foreign Languages, University of Houston, Houston, Texas 77004.

Annual Institute on Business Transactions in Latin America

Location: Miami

Date: April 18–19, 1969

Write the Law Center, University of Miami, P. O. Box 8087, Coral Gables, Florida 33124.

2nd Inter-American Conference on International Judicial Cooperation

Location: Cuernavaca

Date: April 21–22, 1969

The meeting is to take place in conjunction with the 4th Mexican Congress of Law. Write Humberto Briseño Sierra, Comisión Organizadora, Cuarto Congreso Mexicano de Derecho Procesal, Sindicalismo 77, México 18, D. F., Mexico.

Annual Meeting of Northeastern Anthropological Association

Location: Providence

Date: April 25–27, 1969

Write Philip E. Leis, program chairman, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island 02912.

Joint Meeting of Midwest Sociological Society and Ohio Valley Sociological Society

Location: Indianapolis

Date: May 1–3, 1969

Write Vernon C. Pohlmann, secretary, Midwest Sociological Society, Illinois State University, Normal, Ill. 61761.

Meeting of Inter-American Cultural Council

Location: Port of Spain, Trinidad

Date: May 6–13, 1969

Write Inter-American Cultural Council, Pan American Union, Washington, D.C. 20006.

6th Annual Meeting at Ministerial and Expert Level of Inter-American Economic and Social Council

Location: Port of Spain, Trinidad

Date: May 14–23, 1969

White IA-ECOSOC, Pan American Union, Washington, D.C. 20006.

9th General Assembly of the PAIGH

Location: Washington, D. C.

Date: May 29–June 19, 1969

Held as part of the PAIGH conference are the 11th Pan American Consultation on Cartography, the 7th Consultation on Geography, the 9th Consultation on History, and the 2nd Meeting of the Pan American Committee on Geophysical Sciences. Write Carlos A. Forray Rojas, Secretario General, Instituto Panamericano de Geografía e Historia, Ex-Arzobispado 29, México 18, D. F., Mexico.

14th Seminar on the Acquisition of Latin American Library Materials

Location: San Juan

Date: June 17–20, 1969

The seminars, sponsored since 1956 by the Pan American Union as an activity of its Inter-American Program of Library and Bibliographic Development, incorporated as a professional association, SALALM, in 1968. Write Marietta Daniels Shepard, Executive Secretary, SALALM, Pan American Union, Washington, D. C. 20006.

4th Annual Workshop on Economic Development of Mexico
 Location: Mexico City
 Date: June 17–July 18, 1969
 Write J. L. Hodgson, Workshop on Mexican Economic Development, University of the Americas, P. O. Box 968, México 1, D. F., Mexico.

16th Conference of the Inter-American Bar Association
 Location: Rio de Janeiro
 Date: July 7–12, 1969
 Write John O. Dahlgren, Acting Secretary General, IABA, 704 Federal Bar Building,

1815 H. Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20006.

6th Meeting on Public Health of Argentina
 Location: Resistencia
 Date: August 1969.
 Write Jorge Alberto Mera, Secretario General, Asociación Argentina de la Salud Pública, Paraguay 2155, 10° piso, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

14th Conference of Instituto Internacional de Literatura Iberoamericana
 Location: Toronto
 Date: August 24–28, 1969
 Official theme of the conference is The Essay and Literary Criticism in Latin America. Write Kurt Levy, president, Instituto Internacional de Literatura Iberoamericana, University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada.

INSTITUTIONAL NEWS

University of the Americas Publishes Economic Monograph Series

The continuous growth of the economy of Mexico has become increasingly a subject of investigation by local organizations, but little of the resulting material is available in the English-speaking world. The Tlatelolco Economic Monographs, published by the University of the Americas, are geared to making obtainable in English information on the development of the Mexican economy. The monographs appear in two series: the Pochteca series, translations of papers and discussions from conferences held in Mexico on Mexican and Latin American economics; and the Tiankisco series, results of original investigation conducted by members of the university economics department and other Mexican research institutions. Editors of the series are Jacqueline L. Hodgson, Fred Schloesser, and W. Zev Bairey. Information concerning titles, prices, and publication dates may be requested from the editor-in-chief, Professor Hodgson, Economics Department, University of the Americas, Box 968, México 1, D. F., Mexico.

University of Arizona Sponsors International Forum "Brazil '69"

Each year, the Student Union Activities Board, University of Arizona, presents an International Forum on a different country. This year's event, held February 10–15, 1969, featured Brazil. Along with the art exhibits, films, open market shops, and entertainment of Brazilian character, special talks were