Curing 'the bends'

“Hill and Greenwood decompressed themselves, without any serious symptoms, after short exposures at excess pressures of as much as five and even six atmospheres.”

From 'The Prevention of Compressed Air Illness',
Journal of Hygiene, 1908

This breakthrough article included early research into decompression and the first ever dive tables.

It's just one of the treasures in the Cambridge Journals Digital Archive

Journal of Linguistics

Editors

Nigel Fabb, University of Strathclyde, UK

S.J. Hannahs, Newcastle University, UK

Caroline Heycock, University of Edinburgh, UK

Robert D. Borsley, University of Essex, UK

Journal of Linguistics has as its goal to publish articles that make a clear contribution to current debate in all branches of theoretical linguistics. The journal also provides an excellent survey of recent linguistics publications, with around thirty book reviews in each volume and regular review articles on major works marking important theoretical advances.

'The Journal of Linguistics is one of the top journals for theoretical linguistics. It's chock full of new ideas and wonderfully free of theoretical orthodoxy.'

Ivan Sag, Stanford University

Celebrating Volume 30 in 2013

Phonology

Editors

Colin J. Ewen, University of Leiden

Ellen M. Kaisse, University of Washington

Phonology, published three times a year, is the only journal devoted exclusively to the discipline, and provides a unique forum for the productive interchange of ideas among phonologists and those working in related disciplines.

Preference is given to papers which make a substantial theoretical contribution, irrespective of the particular theoretical framework employed, but the submission of papers presenting new empirical data of general theoretical interest is also encouraged.

The journal carries research articles, as well as book reviews and shorter pieces on topics of current controversy within phonology.

Annual Review of Applied Linguistics

An official journal of the American Association for Applied Linguistics (AAAL)

Editor-in-Chief

Charlene Polio, Michigan State University, USA

Annual Review of Applied Linguistics provides a comprehensive, up-to-date review of research in key areas in the broad field of applied linguistics. Each issue is thematic, covering the topic by means of critical summaries, overviews and bibliographic citations. Every fourth or fifth issue surveys applied linguistics broadly, offering timely essays on language learning and pedagogy, discourse analysis, teaching innovations, second-language acquisition, computer-assisted instruction, language use in professional contexts, sociolinguistics, language policy, and language assessment, to name just a few of the areas reviewed.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

English Language & Linguistics (ELL) has moved to email-only submissions. Please use ELLsubmissions@cambridge.org for submissions as well as general correspondence and offers to contribute to the notes and discussion section. One of the editors will be assigned to your article/offer and will respond to you.

Authors should submit an electronic copy of the article, in both Microsoft Word DOC and PDF formats.

Detailed instructions for contributors are available at journals.cambridge.org/ELL

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication.

International Society for the Linguistics of English (ISLE)

ELL is the journal associated with ISLE, the International Society for the Linguistics of English. The central aim of ISLE is to promote the study of the English language, that is, the study of the structure, history and use of standard and non-standard varieties of English, in terms of both form and function, at an international level. The society aims to provide a geographically and theoretically neutral central contact point for all those who are academically active and who identify with this aim. Members of ISLE are eligible for a discount subscription to ELL. For information on ISLE conferences, other ISLE activities, and how to become a member, visit www.isle-linguistics.org.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
